Young skateboarding star gives new park his seal of approval

TEENAGE pro-skateboarder Alex Decunha (right) was showing his stuff at the launch of a new skate park in Broughton Gate yesterday.

The 14-year-old, from Wolverton, was there as part of a 'positive' event to introduce residents and their children to the park, and to prove that not all young people are bad.

Community organiser Corrina Milner, from Community Action:MK, said: "A lot of people have come down, as well as the police and council, and it's a great way to get everyone involved with the local kids and show they are not all bad."

Repeat of chaos fear over Royal Mail plan

BY ADAM GRINSELL

adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

CONCERNS have been raised that there will be a repeat of the Christmas postal chaos as Royal Mail announces its intention to modernise another sorting office.

When the post giant changed the systems in its Brinklow sorting office last autumn, MK NEWS received several complaints from readers.

We ran a number of stories in January with reports of mail being delayed, sometimes by weeks at a time, causing residents served by the office to miss important dates such as hospital appointments and in some cases letters and parcels did not turn up at all.

That prompted Steve Smart, Royal Mail delivery sector manager for Milton Keynes, to publically apologise in our pages.

But now the company has announced it will make some changes to the way it delivers mail at its Bletchley sorting office.

Vanessa McPake, former councillor and resident of Fenny Stratford, has voiced her worries about the changes after lobbying Royal Mail for improvement during the problems at Brinklow.

She said: "I m concerned this time round because I don't think they have addressed some of the issues from last time.

"I worry for the residents that are served by the Bletchley sorting office that the same may happen to them.

"The changes include post-men using new delivery methods with new equipment, and they have adopted revised delivery routes which are being introduced on a phased basis."

Sally Hopkins of Royal Mail said: "The operational changes we are making in Bletchley are part of the modernisation of Royal Mail. They are vital to place our business on a sound, stable and sustainable footing for the future.

"We have written to all households in Bletchley to explain what these changes mean to them and if they have any further queries about our new way of working, they can contact us on 0845 601 1399.

"Customers can be assured that we have learnt lessons from the operational change introduced in Brinklow earlier in the year.

"Our local management team is closely monitoring the implementation of these changes in Bletchley to ensure we continue to provide a high quality of service to customers.

"We are pleased with how the changes to our operations in Bletchley are being implemented and all mail for delivery is being delivered to customers every day."

Men burgled pensioner with early signs of dementia

A BURGLAR was jailed on Friday after stealing from an 83-year-old woman with the onset of dementia.

The pensioner, who lives alone in Leighton Buzzard, was burgled by two men she let in, but she could not tell police what was missing from her flat or what the men had said to her.

Despite this, one of the men, 24-year-old Sean Troy of Eaton Avenue, Bletchley, was arrested the same day on an unrelated matter but was still in possession of some jewellery stolen from the Rush Court flat, and his fingerprint was found inside the property, Luton Crown Court was told.

The other man has not been caught. Troy pleaded guilty to the burglary which was committed on April 10 last year, and on Friday he was jailed for two and a half years.

Judge Ronald Moss told him: "This was a particularly nasty burglary, given that the victim was 83-years-old, living on her own with the early signs of dementia, but you may not have known that."

He said he was rejecting a plea to suspend the sentence.

Alex Odell, prosecuting, said two men were let into the flat and while Troy remained with the victim the other man used the bathroom. He left but Troy remained and was given a cup of tea.

The victim's son called at the flat and later told police that Troy had seemed 'like he was on another planet'. He left when asked but her son realised her purse and cash and some jewellery had gone.

When Troy was arrested he had some gold jewellery with him, which he claimed he had found abandoned and said the £150 cash he had was his dole money.

Charles Judge, defending, said Troy had been assaulted hours before the offence and taken to hospital but discharged.

"That may be why he can recall very little of what happened in the flat. He does not know why she let them in," he added.

Tony Sale explains how the Colossus works to Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip at Bletchley Park

Bletchley Park Trust founder dies aged 80

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

THE mastermind behind the rebuild of the world's first operational computer and one of Bletchley Park's saviours, Tony Sale, has died aged 80.

A founder of the Bletchley Park Trust and the driving force behind the rebuild of Colossus, Mr Sale was also a vital part of the war effort from 1944 onwards.

Born in 1931, as a teenager he was educated at Dulwich College in London. From an early age he showed an aptitude for engineering and electronics and produced his first robot, George I, from Meccano.

With a long history of engineering skill and prowess, he recognised the importance of saving Bletchley Park, and in 1991, with his wife Margaret and a small group of colleagues, Mr Sale started the ultimately successful campaign to save it for the nation.

Two years later, in recognition of the work carried out there during the Second World War, Mr Sale began the Colossus Rebuild Project, a hugely complex task to recreate the world's first modern computer.

Simon Greenish, director of the Bletchley Park Trust, said: "Tony's contribution to the early days of the development of the trust was fundamental and without him, the Bletchley Park site and its hugely important history would perhaps not have survived.

"His work on re-building Colossus was an enormous challenge and took many years to complete."

Mr Sale's achievements have been recognised in recent years with honorary doctorates from three universities. He met the Queen on her recent visit when she unveiled the memorial to honour wartime veterans.

Tony is survived by his wife Margaret, their three children, seven grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Unhappy: Parents and children at the Farrier Place play park on Downs Barn which was set on fire by vandals

Play park vandalism sparks parents' calls for tighter security

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

FUMING parents are calling for tighter security at a play park after it was destroyed by vandals.

The climbing frame, slide and see-saw at the park in Farrier Place, Downs Barn, all had to be removed by Milton Keynes Council after a fire last Monday night.

The blaze also scorched nearby trees and melted the rubber surface, and some residents have even reported hearing an explosion.

The damage to the play area, which was opened in January 2008, is still being assessed by the council, but it is estimated the costs could run into the thousands.

Parents say their children have been left upset after playing there every day and left with no place to play with a week left of the school holiday.

Emma Coleman, who lives in Farrier Place, has two children aged four and 13.

She said: "The kids are all devastated, because they were up there every day, and now they've got nothing to do other than play football in the street.

"It was their park and they are very angry, we never had any trouble like this here before.

"I'm fuming, absolutely fuming - my little one keeps asking why they did this and it's hard trying to explain to a four-year-old."

Residents are now calling on the council to put more security around the park, including a fence and CCTV, and have the bushes around the area cut down.

A council spokesman said: "This was an appalling act of vandalism. We would obviously urge anyone who thinks they saw something to contact the police.

"The site has now been made safe for children to use the remaining equipment.

"With regards to putting up a fence, we would really need to look at this closely. There are a range of options to be explored with the local community before making any informed decision."

Anyone with any information about the incident should call neighbourhood inspector Roy Stringer on 0845 8 505 505.

Teen sexually assaulted after asking man for cigarettes

A TEENAGE girl was sexually assaulted in an alleyway last week.

The incident happened next to the Co-op in Church Street, Wolverton, between 9.25pm, and 9.35pm, on Monday, August 22.

The victim, a 14-year-old girl, asked a man to buy her cigarettes and he told her to go round the corner.

They entered the alleyway and the man then put his arm around the girl, put his hand inside her bra and grabbed her breast.

The victim ran off.

PC Suzi Downing, who is investigating the incident, said: "I am keen to speak to anyone who witnessed the incident or anyone who saw the girl running away afterwards. She was extremely distressed and would have passed the Co-op and The New Queen Victoria pub."

The offender is an Asian man, between 5ft 5ins and 5ft 6ins, 40 to 50-years-old, with a large build, short hair, and a small black goatee beard. He was wearing a black padded jacket and walked off towards Radcliffe Street after the incident.

Anyone with any information about this incident should contact Thames Valley Police via 0845 8 505 505, or call Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Consult those affected

SIR - With reference to your report 'Anger over council plan for go-slow on the roads' (MK NEWS, August 24), we were also at the meeting and thank West Bletchley Council for its efforts in trying to solve the problem of speeding motorists.

We would also report that the objectors, who all seemed to live in Home Close and The Lynx, were completely wrong with the information that they had based their 'survey' on.

They were arguing against obstructions in the roads and the cost of installing them. When it was pointed out to them there were no such obstructions and that there was equally no cost to the council they then pursued the no consultation route, which the council again proved them wrong on.

I would suggest that maybe more notice is taken of residents who actually live on the roads concerned and that 'surveys' are conducted with the correct information.

From several residents who live on one of the affected roads
Sent by e-mail

Change is no real change

SIR - I have just finished reading the letter sent in by Councillor Edith Bald and, I especially liked the part 'we have a new administration'.

Why? A few new elected officials aren't going to make any sort of measurable difference, with the way things are done at MK Council since the majority of our elected representatives on the council remain the same.

Nothing has changed among the senior civil servants either. I seem to remember a supposed internal investigation into the reasons into the closure of the 'bridge'.

You'll notice that nothing has been said by any elected official with regards to this matter?

Robert Lee
Conniburrow

Politicians let us down

SIR - I am sure that most people admire the skill and professionalism shown by the police in dealing with the recent riots.

I only wish that I could similarly admire the reaction of our elected parliamentary representatives (with the exception of the comments made by the Green Party representative).

On the government side and from the Prime Minister down, all I have heard are knee-jerk type reactions and cliches of the kind 'it is not about poverty, unemployment or frustration, it is nothing but pure criminality'.

Calling it criminality tells us nothing useful at all, since we can all see from our TV screens that the activities, such as stealing and setting fires, are criminal ones.

Telling us that it is nothing to do with the background of hopelessness that these people come from surely must raise the issue of why it is such places as Tottenham and Brixton that are predominantly involved.

Surely our politicians need to address the fundamental question - why do the residents of, say, Richmond, Hampstead and Chalfont St. Giles not similarly smash up their communities?

Frederick Toates
Sent by e-mail

Beware vested interests

SIR - It is understandable that those who will profit most from the destruction of the NHS when it is privatised are the same ones who are trying to convince us of the merits of their plans.

They continue to use words such as efficiency improvements and quality reviews when they simply mean a programme of cuts that will decimate the NHS to such an extent that it will never recover.

It is not the health service who are looking for £20billion of cuts, it is the Tory-led coalition who have no mandate anyway for these actions.

The collapse of the banking industry, even though they were the chief agents of their own failure and the resulting financial crisis, has opened the door for the Tories. They are aware they may never again have such a golden opportunity to destroy a service they have always been against right from its birth in 1948. The proposed consortiums will not be led by GPs as they are not trained businessmen, instead they will have to use taxpayers' cash to employ private management consultants to make the financial decisions for them which will result in the National Health Service becoming the National Health Market. Where is the patient's choice in all this?

Our health service staff are demoralised by the uncertainty of their future and that of the service they chose to come into because they believed in its conception of free health care for all, regardless of income.

If we allow these changes to go ahead we will soon be faced with remortgaging homes to pay for our health care just as they do in the USA where 65 per cent of all bankruptcies and home repossessions are caused through medical bills.

Reform is a wonderful method for creating the illusion of progress while producing confusion, inefficiency and demoralization. The general public must stand up and be counted if we are to save our free health service not just for ourselves but also for our children - greed should never come before need except in a dictionary.

Bill Green
Wolverton

Thank you for new pool

SIR - With reference to your article, 'Planning chiefs take the plunge over pool' (MK NEWS, August 24), as a resident of Wolverton can I just say – thank you planning committee, and all those involved in the new development, for this swimming pool.

It is about time us locals had somewhere we can go to swim all year round, instead of having to travel (which isn't too easy when you don't drive) during the winter months, or just swimming during the summer months (which are quite often cold and rainy anyway).

On many a dark December day I've sat inside and fancied a swim, but have never had the ability to just pop around the corner to my local baths and enjoy a dip. Not only that, but I will soon also be able to enjoy a spanking new gym - perfect for relieving the stress of the working week.

So once again, thank you for this wonderful development, but please do hurry and get the thing open.

Name and address supplied

Bowing to economic facts

SIR - What a shame it is that many of our charities, that provide such vital services and support, are facing the axe and cuts due to lack of Governmental grants ('Families lose vital support as charity cuts back services', MK NEWS, 17/8).

But we have to face up to the facts - cuts are being made across the board, and unfortunately the charitable sector will not escape these cost-cutting measure unscathed.

Home Start Milton Keynes is having to close three of its four support groups, many others across the country are either closing or doing similar to Home Start and downsizing, the arts sector in particular is taking a big hit after experiencing huge cuts to funding.

But maybe there is another way.

Maybe it's time to call on the private sector and ask those within it to do their part. We see more and more companies selecting a 'chosen charity' for a year or more, and will then sponsor them solely in all the charity fundraising that they do.

Or maybe more could do a 'donate a day' event, whereby they allow their employees a day off work every few months to do work in the local community - perhaps for a charity of their choice?

In any case, we all now need to pull together to support those most needy in our society, to prop up the charitable sector through these rough times, so that more, like Home Start Milton Keynes, avoid the cuts backs many of us so desperately need them to avoid.

Name and address supplied

Correcting an oversight

SIR - On Tuesday last I carelessly lost not one but two dogs while walking around Tongwell Lake. After searching and calling for an hour I decided to return home, hoping that the dogs had the same idea.

No dogs, but a very kind message on my phone from a lady who said her name was Byron. She told me where the dogs were heading and that she would stay with them until I arrived, which she was kind enough to do.

However, as I got closer to the scene sheer panic had taken over, and I let this lady walk away before I had uttered one word of thanks.

So I am hoping to rectify this unforgivable oversight through your columns. Thank you for the considerable trouble you went to to look after my dogs. You are a star.

£3,000 boost for first aid teams

OLNEY Town Council has donated £3,000 to South Central Ambulance Service NHS Trust's (SCAS) Community First Responders.

Councillor Stephen Clark, Olney town mayor, presented the cheque to Suzanne Solera, SCAS community responder and liaison and training officer.

Suzanne said: "It's a real pleasure to work with Olney Town Council. This donation will enable the purchase of an additional automated external defibrillator and other necessary equipment to support the Olney CFR scheme and potentially benefit more than 6,000 people living in the town."

Cllr Clark said: "SCAS NHS Trust does a great job in providing an essential service to those in need.

"The full council gave their unanimous support to this donation, which will be used to buy important life-saving equipment for use within our local community."

Riot police preparing to deal with the disorder in Milton Keynes earlier this month

Riot teen warned: You're going down

A TEENAGE boy has been told by magistrates to expect a substantial custodial sentence after pleading guilty to a range of offences during a night of disorder.

The youth, who cannot be named for legal reasons, was part of a group of people who stole from and vandalised shops in Bletchley on Tuesday, August 9.

At a hearing at Milton Keynes Youth Court last Tuesday the youngster, from Bletchley, admitted one count of theft, one count of burglary, one count of criminal damage to a Papa Johns Pizza outlet and one count of violent disorder.

By JULIA SUTTON
editor@mk-news.co.uk

He is due to be sentenced on Tuesday, September 13.

DS Stuart Bosley said: "This boy was one of a group of yobs who descended on Bletchley with the sole intention of causing maximum disorder and distress to normal law-abiding people.

"Once there, they proceeded to demonstrate that they felt they were above the law.

"This shows that anyone behaving in this manner in Milton Keynes can expect to be arrested and subsequently feel the full force of the law.

"However, we are still eager to get as much intelligence about the crimes committed that evening.

"I would urge anyone with information, images or video footage to email us directly on miltonkeynesdisorder@thamesvalley.pnn.police.uk"

A further six people have been charged with a variety of offences in connection with the disorder in Bletchley on the same day.

Five are due to appear at Milton Keynes Magistrates' Court on September 8.

A further man, Mahad Abdi, is due to appear at Aylesbury Crown Court on November 4.

GP consortia may have to merge

THE city's two GP consortia may have to merge following the publication of new Government guidance earlier this month.

Now called clinical commissioning groups (CCGs), the two consortia were set up to eventually replace the city's primary care trust, which commissions health services for the NHS to provide to patients.

GP Healthcare MK and Premier MK were established last year after like-minded GP practices agreed to work together to develop the two GP consortia.

But now the two CCGs have started talks to see how they can merge after it became clear the current configuration of two groups serving Milton Keynes would not be authorised by the Government after the publication of draft guidance on developing such groups.

Dr Nicola Smith, chairman of GP Healthcare MK, said: "Both CCGs met earlier this month to explore the implications of this and the opportunities for patients and practices in Milton Keynes.

"We will be discussing the issues and the options in more detail within each CCG over the coming weeks."

Riders at the Hub

It's pedal power as bikes takeover city

Hitching a ride: a junior skyrider gets some help from dad

On yer bike: Riders enjoying cycling in the Hub

Cooling down: Riders at the Hub

BY DAN PALMER

dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

MORE than 4,000 people took to the saddle for the city's first ever Sky Ride.

Cyclists of all ages and abilities had a blast on two wheels as major streets were cleared of traffic to allow the fun to take place on Sunday.

The free event, hosted by Sky and British Cycling, in partnership with Milton Keynes Council, allowed cyclists to travel a 5km course at their own pace, passing well known buildings such as The Hub and Midsummer Place.

There was also a wide range of entertainment during the day, and special appearances from TV Personality Jeff Brazier, Team Sky cyclists Christian Knees and Matthew Hayman and World and Paralympic Champion cyclist Jody Cundy.

The day marked the 14th event of Sky Ride 2011 – a national campaign which aims to get one million people cycling regularly by 2013. It is hoped people of all ages and abilities will be inspired to get back on their bikes so they can rediscover the fun they can have on two wheels.

David Jones, 16, of Bletchley, was one of those to take part. He said: "It was superb to see so many people enjoying themselves, the amount of bikes out there was incredible."

Mr Brazier, a Sky Ride Ambassador, added: "It was a brilliant family day out and it was great to see so many bikes taking over the city streets. I hope it's reignited your love of going out for a bike ride and that this is only the start of your cycling journey."

Local Sky Rides are now due to take place in the Milton Keynes area on a regular basis.

Alex Constantinides head of transport for Milton Keynes Council, added: "It's fantastic that Sky Ride Milton Keynes has been such a success today, with thousands of local people out on their bikes enjoying the city on two wheels."

Work in progress: Construction is still underway at the new Network Rail head office in CMK

The Quadrant:MK is new name for site

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

THE huge development next to Central Milton Keynes railway station now has a name - The Quadrant:MK.

The building, which will soon house 3,000 Network Rail employees and will be the firm's national centre, was named after a company-wide competition.

The name was approved last week out of hundreds of entries from employees around the country, many of whom are either based in Milton Keynes already or will be moving to the city over the course of the coming year.

The naming was marked with a special behind-the-scenes tour for the two employees who suggested the winning monicker.

Jacqui Wimbush, a team organiser at Network Rail's Milton Keynes central offices and who lives in Brixworth in Northamptonshire, said: "I'm really excited that the name I put forward has been chosen and having the chance to get a personal tour of the site before it is open is a real treat."

Diane Ritchie, the other winner, is a service manager in Network Rail's telecoms team and is based near Euston station in London.

She said: "The building is a lot bigger than I thought it would be and I'm really impressed with the main 'street' through the building.

"It will be a really great place to work."

The Quadrant:MK is due to open its doors next summer.

Tim Coucher, Network Rail programme director for the national centre project, said: "I'm confident The Quadrant:MK will be a place which inspires our people and I know it will be a fabulous place to work."

Top names give city economy a big boost

Entertaining the crowd: David Grohl from Foo Fighters at the National Bowl in July

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

THE city's economy received a major boost last month after a number of high-profile events helped pull in the crowds.

From the Foo Fighters' concerts at The National Bowl and the JLS gig at stadiummk, to the Super Bike World Championships and the British Grand Prix at Silverstone, Milton Keynes welcomed an exceptional number of visitors during the month.

Another first-time event held at stadiummk was the Jehovah's Witnesses' conference which saw more than 24,000 people attend over three days at the end of July.

In addition to this, April saw the Northampton Saints staging their Heineken Cup quarter-final against Ulster and their semi-final against French side Perpignan, both at stadiummk, bringing in thousands of overseas fans to the city.

Destination Milton Keynes (DMK), the official tourism and information provider for the city, has been working to try to establish the economic impact on local business.

A recent study by Northampton Saints showed around 3,500 Ulster fans travelled to Milton Keynes and it is estimated that the average expenditure was £250 per person.

The Association of Milton Keynes Hoteliers also carried out research with its 22 members to estimate the spend on accommodation over the Foo Fighters concert weekend - it conservatively estimates the income from this was around £640,000 excluding any food, drink, transport and additional entertainment.

Jackie Inskipp, general manager at DMK, said: "This shows what a real difference major events can make to Milton Keynes.

"They provide a much needed revenue stream for our accommodation providers, but more than that, they also give us an opportunity to promote the city to a wider, national and international audience."

Nail-biting wait is over as pupils open results

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

STUDENTS from across the city found out whether their hard work had paid off when they received their GCSE results.

But for many, all the worry turned to joy on Thursday as the fruits of their labour were revealed in the form of multiple A* and A grades.

At Oakgrove School Charlotte Pearson, from Springfield, discovered she had achieved the equivalent of 12 A* and six A grades, and even an A in AS-level French, which she took a year early.

"Some days I worked for eight hours," she said. "I worked hard in the lessons and worked hard at home revising.

"I wanted to work in musical theatre, but now it could be something physics related as I worked out that's something I'm good at."

She was congratulated on the day by mum Delphine, who said she had to keep her workaholic daughter in check throughout her revision.

"I had to make sure she got enough rest, she works very hard and it's always been that way," she said. "I'm very pleased for her."

Other success stories at the school included twin sisters Beatrice and Hester Ormerod, who achieved a remarkable 19 A* grades between them, and Patiya Green who got ten A*s across all her subjects.

Headteacher Peter Barnes was delighted with all the pupils, saying: "They demonstrated that excellent performance could be achieved in rigorous academic subjects."

Meanwhile, at Walton High

Delight: Jasper Grimm opens his results at Walton High

'Thrilled' with grades

AMONG those tearing open their envelopes was Daniel Porter-White.

Daniel, 16, has spent the last two weeks at MK NEWS getting first-hand experience of what it is like to be a reporter in Milton Keynes. Here he talks about getting his results

"I, along with thousands of other teenagers, collected my GCSE results on Thursday.

Eleven years of my schooling life came down to this one day and I was thrilled with my results. I came away with a B grade in maths and a C in English, French, IT and a first diploma, equivalent to four GCSEs, in science.

Many of my mates were over the moon with their results and some not so pleased, but overall the success rate was high and most of them can still do what they had planned next year.

I plan to go to sixth form to study A-levels in French, media, sociology and IT and also hope to find a part-time job.

After this I am aiming to go to university to study sports journalism, as sport and journalism have always been keen interests of mine."

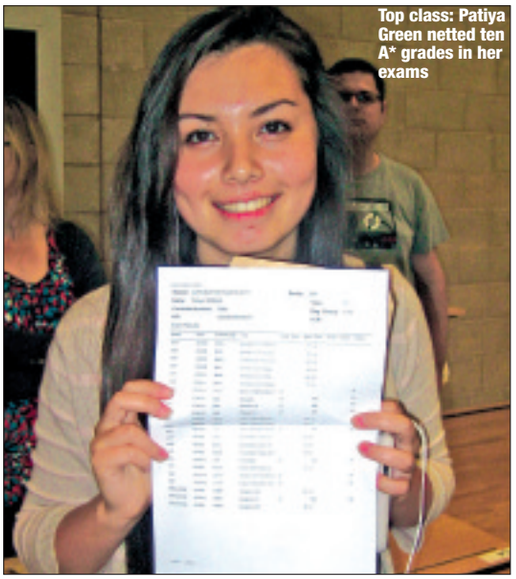
Shock: Priyasha Vadera and Madelene Waldron at Walton High



Top class: Patiya Green netted ten A* grades in her exams

there was also an air of celebration.

Charlie Caird said: "I'm so happy, I got eight A*s and three As, and I was expecting a couple of Bs.

"I'm waiting to tell my parents now, my mum's going to be so happy because she was so worried for me."

Vice-principal Sharon Alexander believes the students who fared best were those who took part in lots of school activities outside of their studies - a rule proved by Jasper Grimm, who set up the juggling club and takes part in lots of music groups.

He got six A*s and four As and said: "Doing other things gives you something to focus on but relax as well, and takes your mind off the academic things for a while."

Across Milton Keynes, provisional results show this year 78.9 per cent of students achieved at least five GCSEs or equivalent at grades A* to C, an improvement from 75.2 per cent in 2010.

Gail Tolley, director of children's services at Milton Keynes Council, said: "Congratulations to all involved in achieving these results. This improvement is testament to the hard work of students, parents, carers and staff at schools in Milton Keynes. We have high ambitions for our young people and we will continue to work to improve results further in the coming years."

LORD GREY – MK South Sixth Form results up again.

99.5% pass at Level 3.

Year 13 student secures place at Girton College, Cambridge.

Lord Grey School in Bletchley is once again encouraged by its A2 results for Year 13 students for the summer of 2011.

The pass rate at A2 and A level equivalency stands at 99.5%, which is well above the national average (98.1%, 2010) and up from 98.4% last year. This is fantastic news for Lord Grey School which is a key partner within MK South Sixth Form.

One great success story for MK South Sixth Form is Luke Baker. Luke, who studied at Leon School for Years 7-11 and then transferred to Lord Grey School for his A levels, has got in to Girton College, Cambridge to read Natural Sciences.

Luke and his Mother were totally thrilled when they heard the news and Luke said: "I think the A* in Biology tipped it for me." Fellow Sixth Formers were also pleased for him and lots of hugs and handshakes took place in the Sixth Form Study Centre when the news came through.

Lord Grey Headteacher, Dr Tracey Jones, commented: "this is real partnership work. He did his groundwork at Leon School and his A levels here at Lord Grey, this is great news for both communities."

There was only one fail (U) grade from around two hundred entries. Dr Tracey Jones said: "I am delighted by these figures. It is testimony to the hard work and dedication of our students and staff.

These positive results show that Lord Grey's Sixth Form was rightly graded as 'good' in our June 2011 Ofsted inspection."

Head of Sixth Form, Dr Jo Trevenna commented: "Lord Grey's A level results have been consistently good for the past five years now and this is a fantastic indicator of the school's drive to encourage achievement.

Every year we strive to improve and to my mind the MK South Sixth Form partnership with Leon School is going from strength to strength."

The Chair of Governors, Mrs Madeleine Carrington, was also thrilled with the progress, saying: "this is another step forward in our journey of school improvement. It shows, again, that we are on an upward trajectory."

There are some fantastic stories of individual success, such as Cambridge University for Luke Baker on 4 A levels and 1020 points; Eslene Makoundou did very well with 1225 points from A levels in Maths, Spanish, French and General Studies. She also gained many extra points from Asset Languages.

Luke Baker and headteacher, Dr Tracey Jones

Brian Bempong gained 1308 points from A levels in Chemistry, PE, German, Maths and Biology. He, too, gained many Asset Language points as well. Kevin Osei-Yaw scored 1052 points from his prowess in French and Spanish plus a fantastic achievement in BTEC Travel and Tourism.

Elizabeth Oluwole gained 1251 points from A levels in French, German, Maths and Psychology. She also gained AS level Accountancy and lots of extra points from Asset Languages.

Claude Tshimanga gained 1079 points from Travel and Tourism, French and General Studies. Students scoring over 900 points were Hannah Brett, Celeste Nkueno, Danielle Percy and Dean Phillips.

Hannah Campbell got a brilliant A and 3Bs and Jonathan Hill gained 3Bs and 1C showing his creativity. Lewis Kaye and Gemma Nicholas were also a credit to the school and themselves.

Individual subjects which have done well at A2 level are Biology, Drama, Sociology and PE. Maths has done fantastically well for the second year running with 100% pass and 35% A*-B grades and the school's Languages courses have done well with 100% pass in French, German, Spanish and Italian. This is especially pleasing as Languages is the school's main specialism.

Other courses have done well too, with BTEC Travel and Tourism, BTEC Business and Extended Project scoring very high grades.

The school is also pleased with 100% pass in the Creative and Media Diploma, an innovative course which required much dedication from the students.

The school is pleased that the vast majority of those students applying for university or higher education have secured a place, with most getting their first choice.

The Head of Sixth Form confirmed that the majority of those students who wish to move on to university or higher education have achieved the points score or grades to do so, at a very competitive time for university places.

> "great news for both communities

The school is also contented with progress at AS level for Year 12.The pass rate has gone up by 7.8% since last year and is above the national average (85.7%, 2010) and the A*- B rate has gone up by 4.8%.

Rob Page, Deputy Headteacher commented: "It is very exciting that many subjects are up on last year at AS level and the all important A-B grades are up. We have been having a real push on maximising the potential of our more able students, so I am really encouraged for the future by these results."*

Aspire, Learn, Achieve

Amazing positive 'double whammy' for Lord Grey School

Lord Grey School in Bletchley is delightedly over-whelmed by its GCSE results for summer 2011.

The headline figure of 5+A*-C including English and Maths is up by 7.5% to 45.5%. This is in addition to a growth of 10% last year. This means that results have gone up from 28% in 2009 to 45.5% in 2011.

The Headteacher, Dr Tracey Jones, commented: "A 17.5% increase in 5+A-C including English and Maths over two years is incredible.*

This is the key figure that everyone is bothered about at the moment, as this is the one that gives young people a route into further education and often leads to more career opportunities, so I am very pleased. It is testimony to the hard work and dedication of the Lord Grey staff, and, of course, the students themselves."

This is a positive 'double whammy' for the school because in June the Bletchley comprehensive school underwent a full category 5 Ofsted inspection and it came out of Notice to Improve.

It was given a new rating of Satisfactory with Many Good Features, and a Good Sixth Form. Indeed 15 out of 30 sub categories were graded as Good.

The Deputy Headteacher, Mr Nigel Handyside, said: "We were pleased with our Ofsted grading at the time, but now that these results have come in so high, we know that in reality the school has moved to 'Good with Outstanding Features'. We are sure this would have been the result had Ofsted arrived in September or October. In some ways we were unlucky with timing, but we are still really pleased that the future looks much more optimistic for the school."

Five GCSEs at C grade or above is also up by an incredible 24.5%, from 47.0% to 71.5%. This again continues the two year trend, with an improvement of 33.5% over two years. The school is also delighted that it has beaten its target, which was 63%; thus the school has achieved at 8.5% over target.

The new Deputy Headteacher, Mr Rob Page, said: "We can build on this and push on even further. These extremely good results are due to the hard work of everyone, including lots of parents supporting and backing the school. It is vital that parents encourage their sons and daughters to work hard, and many have supported the school in this."

Other key indicators are also up. Students achieving 5+A*-G grades are up slightly on last year, at 95.3% and this is the best ever result in this category and just above the school's target. One A* to C grade now stands at 98% and one A* to G grade is 100%. This means that no student has left Year 11 without some kind of qualification.

The points scored by students is also hugely up on last year. Average points score per student stands at 416, which is 6 points above the school's target and average points score capped (best 8 results) stands at 323, which is 13 points above target. The Chair of Governors, Mrs Madeleine Carrington, commented: "This is excellent, really excellent. Well done to all involved. We need to keep this up for future cohorts of students."

Top students were Joni Downs with 7xA*, 2xA and one BTEC Distinction; Luke Bullock gained 1xA*, 8xA, one Distinction* and one Merit at BTEC level; Georgia Dunn achieved 1xA*, 6xA, 1xB and one Distinction and two Distinction* at BTEC; Chloe-Flatt Rose gained 6xA, 3xB and one Distinction and one Merit in BTEC subjects.

Also of note were Jessica Glass with 2xA*, 5xA, 1xB, 1xC and one Pass in OCR National; Amy Gould gained 2xA*, 5xA, 2xB and one Distinction and two Distinction* in BTECs. Scarlett Morris achieved 1xA*, 6xA, 2xB, one Distinction and one Distinction*.

Some of Lord Grey's top candidates in terms of point score were:

Annie Siu	693	Joni Downs	668
Rochelle Winkworth	715	Luke Bullock	656
Jason Richards	832	Liam Ashmead	611
Praveena Ramesh	629	Robyn Lines	644
Georgia Dunn	833	Stacey Dennaford	642
Julie Robbins	609	Korri Lenney	629
Perrine Jaccard	698	Amy Gould	662
Francesca Quincey	623	Oliver Hughes	602

The two key subjects of Maths and English fared well with 60.4% at English GCSE and 54.0% in Maths gaining C grade or above.

As a Languages College, there were some notable successes in GCSEs with 95% A*-C in Italian and a good (18.5%) uplift from last year for Spanish to 50% A*-C. French, German, Dutch and Chinese all gained 100% pass at GCSE and many extra points were gained in Languages from short course GCSE entries and Asset Languages entries. There were 5xA* in Italian, 1xA* in French and 4xA* in Chinese.

Dr Tracey Jones explained: "Lots of subjects improved on last year and many got 100% pass – too many to mention them all individually. I am proud of what has been achieved in our Science subjects as the faculty has battled on and worked hard in the face of some serious staff absence.

Well done to them. I am also encouraged to see History and Geography improving, alongside RS and Citizenship. This is a boost to Humanities at a time when the English Baccalaureate is becoming more prominent."

Other strong areas were English Literature, Art, Textiles, Business, Drama, Media & Film, Sport/PE and all the BTEC/OCR Nationals subjects.

Councillor's fears over NHS review

LAST month MK NEWS exclusively revealed that Milton Keynes Hospital, along with four others in the region, is currently undergoing a review of services that could see some lost, and others gained.

In response to a series of articles in this paper by health professionals, Councillor Nigel Long, pictured, chairman of Milton Keynes Council's health and well-being select committee and co-ordinator or pressure group MK Health Concern, explains his concerns.

"THE Government continues to implement the most fundamental changes to the NHS in its 60 year history.

Plans for Milton Keynes include the Acute Service Review - a review of the services provided by Milton Keynes Hospital.

They also include requiring all GP practices to form into two groups, which will be called Clinical Commissioning Groups.

These also include that community health services, such as mental health, will be run by some form of new body.

The elephant in the room is that nationally the NHS has to make £20billion pounds of 'efficiencies'.

Our hospital is already suffering big time. A range of bodies, from the British Medical Association to trade unions representing nurses and other staff are alarmed at the changes.

The Government said the Milton Keynes Primary Care Trust (PCT) should be taken over by the Northamptonshire PCT to form what is called a 'cluster'. It will determine how NHS services develop in our city.

In 30 years we will be as big a city as Bristol, yet we may only have a small hospital. We may keep A&E but other services like cardiology, radiology or pathology could no longer be provided in the city. The Acute Services Review will determine that.

The bottom line is that a lot of work is going on behind closed doors to develop options. I want to see the people of Milton Keynes involved in these decisions, not simply presented with a done deal.

The Government says the proposals will be made public in the autumn with a formal consultation over Christmas. That may be too late.

Milton Keynes Council's health select committee is looking at this and on Tuesday, September 30 will interview the key players and try to bring out all the facts.

A new campaign called MK Health Concern has been formed to bring the city together to protect our NHS.

For further information email nigel.long@milton-keynes.gov.uk."

In the MK NEWS exclusive in July, the PCT said residents will be 'at the centre of the review'.

Hospital chief executive Mark Millar also said: "Patients will be at the heart of the review, will have opportunities to contribute, and their best interests considered at all times."

Wind farm battle is set to spin on

BY ADAM GRINSELL AND DAN PALMER
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A ROW over a proposed wind-farm near an ancient forest has intensified with both sides claiming that the other has been misleading the public.

Developer Ecotricity wants to place 15 turbines near Salcey Forest but a campaign group, Save Our Salcey, claim the development would ruin the local landscape.

The group has accused Ecotricity of releasing 'flawed' figures with regards to the amount of electricity the wind-farm would generate, but the company has hit back, accusing Save Our Salcey of 'scaremongering' and saying a mocked-up image campaigners have created is far from accurate.

In it, a turbine is seen in the middle of the forest but Ecotricity say it would in fact be more than 2km away and barely visible.

Spokesman Mike Cheshire said: "Scare stories and images simply whip up fear and anxiety among people and that's not helpful for anyone. Neither the Forestry Commission or the British Horse Society have raised any objection to the proposals."

Meanwhile, the group has released a set of electricity figures which it claims is more realistic.

The developers estimate the turbines would generate enough electricity to power the equivalent of 30 per cent of households in Milton Keynes, but Save Our Salcey claims the figure is more like 13 per cent. It also claims Ecotricity's figure for annual output is wrong.

A spokesman for Save Our Salcey said: "The real issue here is not a photo, but that the developer's estimates are based on flawed and out-of-date figures. Our figures are accurate."

Mr Cheshire added: "We have a standardised, open and robust method for calculating all of the figures we use."

Sir Ian is back at the city's theatre

BY JUDY RILEY
editor@mk-news.co.uk

SIR Ian McKellen appears in The Syndicate at Milton Keynes Theatre next month - and MK NEWS caught up with him for a quick chat.

"I like to accept a part if I'm intrigued by it," said Sir Ian.

Knighted in 1991, Sir Ian is loving the challenge of playing a 'Godfather' who rules with a smile – and a gun.

"Eduardo de Filippo was the Alan Ayckbourn of his day. In Naples, after the war, law and order had broken down. Neither the police nor the government could be trusted so the 'Godfathers', who each ruled their own district, stepped in to take over with a rod of iron."

McKellen plays Mafia boss Antonio Barracano who, as a young man, fled to New York.

Forty years later he returns as a 'Godfather' with a conscience, helping people sort out their problems and trying to stamp out violence.,

"It's a fantastic part for me" he said, "and I'm working with so many old friends, including Michael Pennington, and some really talented younger actors."

McKellen is again teamed up with Sean Mathias who directed Waiting for Godot, which ran for a week at Milton Keynes Theatre in 2009.

"I had a wonderful time in Milton Keynes. It was the first time the play really took off. The audience got the humour and their response really lifted the production," he added.

"The challenge in this play is trying to be Italian without resorting to cod accents. So it's all about portraying that Mediterranean character through gestures, intonation and bearing."

The Syndicate runs at Milton Keynes Theatre from September 12 -17.

Mum-to-be: Damini with Chandrika, (left) another female elephant

Woburn's delight over elephant's pregnancy

THE pitter-patter of some rather large feet could soon be heard.

That's because Woburn Safari Park last week announced it is celebrating the first pregnancy for Damini, a 17-year-old Asian elephant, who has been cared for by the park since 1997.

Damini, which is Indian for lightning or electric, is now 12 months into her pregnancy with another possible ten months to go.

The proud father, 17-year-old Asian elephant Raja, also lives at the park.

Head elephant keeper Lynne Thomson said: "We are thrilled, but also aware that we have a long way to go.

"Every step of the way we will be providing careful prenatal care."

Special care consists of a balanced diet, which in elephant terms means eating around 70 kilograms of food a day.

This has to be monitored to make sure she doesn't put on too much weight during her pregnancy, and the growing baby is getting the best nutrition.

In addition to this the elephant keepers ensure Damini is exercised regularly, with a brisk walk around the park, stretching and swimming.

Get On Your Bike for a good cause

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

NOW in its sixth year, Get On Your Bike MK 2011 promises to be the biggest and best ever.

The family charity bike ride, raising money for Cancer Research UK and suitable for all levels of riders, is organised entirely by volunteers.

This year, the event includes a lucky dip for anyone who takes part, with prizes including a bike donated by Corley Cycles, a hot air balloon flight courtesy of MK Flyers, plus more goodies, including a camcorder and digital cameras, from Tesco.

Entertainment on the day will come in the form of a 'freerunning' demonstration by MK PK, and for the first time there will be a live band - Long Distance Call - plus a bouncy castle, facepainting and organised barbecue.

Jim Helliar of www.bookmeadisco.com will once again be creating a great atmosphere.

Organiser Carol Osbourne would like to thank sponsors MK NEWS, Hilton Hotel and Livingwell Health Club, without whom the event could not happen.

The seven or 15-mile routes start and finish at the Hilton Hotel, Kents Hill. This year's event also includes a 15 mile off-road 'bridle' route for the more advanced cyclist.

The event kicks off at 9.30am on Sunday, September 11, with all the rides starting at 11am.

For registration details visit www.getonyourbikemk.org, or call Carol on 01908 502418. The deadline to register online is Tuesday, and by first class post on September 8. Registration packs can be picked up on the day.

70 tonnes of rubbish picked up around lake

MORE than 100 kind-hearted volunteers recently gave up their spare time to collect litter from a city lake as part of a new initiative.

The amount of rubbish collected at the event topped 70 kilograms.

It took place as part of the Respect Willen Lake community campaign, organised by the Campbell Park East Neighbourhood Action Group (NAG) in response to concerns raised during an earlier public consultation about littering and dog fouling in the area.

The week-long campaign ran from Monday to Friday, August 15 to 19, at Willen Lake South to promote the simple message 'you brought it with you, please take it home'.

Dawn Morland, community ranger for The Parks Trust, said: "We spend approximately £45,000 a year on clearing rubbish from around Willen Lake and this doesn't include the great work done by our volunteers.

"If more visitors took their litter home with them, this money could be better spent on caring for the landscape, improving facilities in the parks and offering more community events."

The campaign included members of the Safer Communities Unit at Milton Keynes Council patrolling the park, and talks to visitors about the dangers of using disposable barbecues.

Chief defends £500k spend on consultants

BY ADAM GRINSELL

adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

THE city's fire service has responded to a union's concerns over the amount of money being spent on consultants and employment agencies.

As reported in last week's MK NEWS, the Fire Brigades Union (FBU) hit out at Buckinghamshire and Milton Keynes Fire and Rescue Service (BFRS) after a Freedom of Information request revealed that more than £500,000 had been spent in the first seven months of this year.

But chief fire officer Mark Jones has now responded, saying the service is convinced the money has been wisely spent.

In a statement sent to this newspaper, he said the money has helped BFRS undertake an organisational restructure which has saved hundreds of thousands of pounds with no detriment to frontline services.

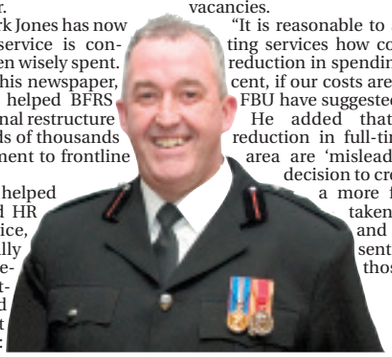
He added it has also helped improve the finance and HR functions of the service, which have 'historically been viewed as underdeveloped/ poorly supported by both internal and external independent audits'. Mr Jones said: "For example, just over £200,000 of the reported spend was on projects which addressed long-standing problems in managing the authority's assets and supplies.

"The increased expenditure on consultants reported represents a very different method of delivering our services, and is greatly offset by the scale of the overall spending reductions.

"In fact, the quoted figures did not represent the true costs which, for fair comparison to be made, would have to have included the costs of temporary staff and unfilled vacancies.

"It is reasonable to ask: without cutting services how could we deliver a reduction in spending of over five per cent, if our costs are escalating as the FBU have suggested?"

He added that reports of a reduction in full-time cover in any area are 'misleading', and that a decision to crew fire vehicles in a more flexible way was taken some years ago, and does not represent a greater risk to those they serve.



Backing spend: Chief fire officer Mark Jones

New way to shop: Chris Pybus at the Click and Collect drive through at Tesco Bletchley

Drive-through to do your shopping

BY DAN PALMER
dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

YOU'VE heard of a drive-through fast food restaurant, but how about a drive-through supermarket?

That concept has become a reality for shoppers in the city thanks to a new service introduced at the Tesco store in Watling Street, Bletchley.

Your shopping is picked and packed for you and you then drive through to collect it, without having to leave your car.

The service is designed to suit people who like ordering food online but don't want to wait at home for a delivery.

John Scollen, acting manager at the store, said he was pleased to be able to offer the drive-through to customers.

He said: "We're very excited about offering this new service to our customers here in Milton Keynes.

"I speak to customers every day about their shopping experience, and this new service will offer our customers even more choice in how they buy their shopping."

Customers order their shopping as usual on the Tesco.com website, choosing the 'Click and Collect' option and booking a two-hour collection slot.

They can then pick up their order during this window. Staff will come and pack the shopping into the boot, with the charge for the service starting at £2.

Ian Crook, Tesco.com marketing director, said: "We believe this will be especially popular with busy mums and young professionals."

Tesco was the first retailer to trial drive-through supermarkets in its Baldock Extra and Romford Gallows Corner Extra stores, in August 2010. The trial is now being extended to another 12 stores.

Leader is on the run for hospice

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

THE leader of Milton Keynes Council will soon be putting politics aside to see if he can be first past the post.

On Sunday, September 18 Conservative councillor Andrew Geary, pictured, will be donning his running shoes and shorts and taking to the streets of Newcastle for the BUPA Great North Run.

He is taking part to support Willen Hospice and says he hopes to beat his time of two years ago - a paltry two-and-a-half hours.

"Last time I had the most wonderful experience I ever had, but did it in a ghastly time," he said.

"I raised £1,000 for Diabetes UK last time round, but this time I wanted to do it for a local charity."

Farmer Mr Geary said he chose Willen Hospice, not just because it's a recognised city charity providing a 'tremendous service to people in their last days of life and their families', but also for personal reasons.

"Both my grandparents were there, and we've lost a couple of members of the farming community in the last 12 months, one, Peter Cook, was only 47," he added.

"The hospice needs money to do some refurbishment, so that's what I want to do this for."

The 13.1-mile race will be good training for the Hanslope Park ward councillor, as he prepares to tackle the Milton Keynes Marathon in April - and he is planning on dragging some of his fellow politicians along with him.

"I'm hoping we can enter a corporate team next year, with councillors Daivd Hopkins, Andrew Morris and Lee Barney, and perhaps even MP Iain Stewart.

"They are all very supportive of what I'm doing, and they better stick their hands in their pockets - though I'm sure they will."

Best foot forward: Councillor Andrew Geary

Growing: Liz Beagley with the bush in the shape of a plane in memory of her son who died in an air accident

A tree tribute to pilot James

BY DAN PALMER
dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

A MOTHER has crafted a unique tribute to her pilot son who was tragically killed in a plane crash.

James Beagley, 34, was one of five people who were killed when two aircraft collided near Coventry Airport in August, 2008.

Liz Beagley's son, a former pupil at Ousedale School in Newport Pagnell, was carrying out a survey for employer Reconnaissance Ventures Ltd when the Cessna he was a passenger in hit the other plane.

He piloted regularly and to symbolise his love of flying, his mother Liz Hopkins has shaped a bush in her garden in Walnut Tree into a plane.

Speaking near to the three-year anniversary of the accident, Liz, 62, said: "Flying was all he ever wanted to do.

"The bush was not something I planted, I think a bird must have dropped a seed as it began to grow on its own. Then, on the first anniversary of the accident I thought it would be a nice tribute."

James was so highly regarded in flying circles that an air display was held in his honour near Maidenhead, where he spent much of his childhood, last week.

The Battle of Britain flypast, which is usually held on royal occasions and was seen at Prince William's wedding, was viewed by a large crowd at White Waltham airfield.

Liz described the event as an 'amazing' tribute. She said: "I hope he knows how much he was respected."

Last week, MK NEWS featured another unique garden sculpture.

Dudley Haines, 68, has shaped the trees outside his home in Two Mile Ash into pineapples.

Tickets to watch diverse MK stars

BY DAN PALMER
dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

FIVE tickets to a first-time-ever event are up for grabs in this week's MK NEWS.

On September 18, Milton Keynes Equality Council (MKEC) and the RGS Entertainment Group will host DiverseArtsLIVE!, an event designed to showcase the wide range of diverse talents in the city.

The MKEC has been approached by artists expressing a lack of equality of opportunity for people from black, Asian and minority ethnic groups who are trying to get into showbusiness.

As a result, the organisation started promoting artists in 2008 and held a Diversity Ball at stadiummk where various artists performed in front of an audience of 800.

A second ball then took place in 2010 where further artists were introduced, and the idea has now been taken to the next level with DiverseArtsLIVE!

Preeya Kalidas, known as Imira in EastEnders, and Ramzi will star in the show together with new and existing artists like Ill Defined, Frixion, Alpha/Dance Group, Omega Dance Group, All Nationals Community Choir and MK Community Choir.

Stars: Diverse Arts Live is set to wow Milton Keynes Theatre next month.

There will also be a fashion show of beauty queens that will portray national costumes.

For your chance win a ticket to the show, being held at Milton Keynes Theatre, simply answer the following question: What well know TV series does Preeya Kalidas star in: a) Emmerdale, b) Coronation Street, or c) EastEnders?

Send your entry, along with your name, address and contact details, to competitions@mk-news.co.uk, or MK NEWS, 1 Diamond Court, Fox Milne, MK15 OUD.

The closing date for entries is Wednesday, September 7. The editor's decision is final and the winners will be notified.

For more information about DiverseArtsLIVE! e-mail Navrita Atwal at navritaa@mkequalitycouncil.org.uk.

MK BUSINESS

City entrepreneur having bags of fun with venture

LOOT bags have a less sinister meaning after the launch of a new party business this month.

Party Bags MK aims to provide party or 'loot' bags for parents who want to save time and money on an easily forgotten part of children's parties.

Parents can choose from ready-designed themed bags, or select their own fillers from a range chosen by the company. Customers can also select a mixture of bags to accommodate various ages, tastes and genders, all for the same party.

The business was started by Priya Singadia, from Broughton, who found many of her friends forgot about party bags until the last minute, or got frustrated by the lack of variety available at a low price.

She said: "I'm really pleased with the response we have had in just a few weeks.

"Clearly parents love the idea of having low-cost bags delivered direct to the party venue without any of the hassle of finding suitable fillers.

"It just started as a small thing, my first order was from one of my close friends, but since then it has grown and grown, and already in three weeks my friends on Facebook have grown to more than 400 because of the business.

Pick 'n' mix: Priya Singadia with a selection of her party bags

"I've been going retro, putting in things like whizz-bangs. My philosophy is that the sweets we used to get when we were younger are much better than they are today, so that's some of what you will find in my bags.

"It's something different to what parents can go and buy and put together themselves.

"And I don't just do generic bags for each party - you can put them together for each child individually, as I like to keep it quite personal because kids are people's pride and joy."

Party Bags MK has already increased its range to include toddler bags, stag and hen do bags and a range of Hallowe'en and Christmas bags.

Mrs Singadia is also planning to start a bespoke wedding service, where husbands and wives-to-be can get a quote for 'pick 'n' mix' areas or favours.

She added: "One of my friends is having a pick and mix area, but I can do it cheaper than what she has been quoted, so I've now set up the wedding service as well.

"I'm now also looking at baby shower bags."

Abbey Hill swings into action for new adventure

GOLFERS who 'arrgh' crazy for a new challenge will soon have just the thing.

Pirate Island Adventure Golf, a concept designed to encourage families to enjoy the sport, is coming shortly to Abbey Hill Golf Centre in Two Mile Ash.

The new activity will be unveiled in the autumn after the plans were given the green light by Milton Keynes Council.

Designed to appeal to all age groups, the course is based around mini golf with players requiring only a putter to navigate their ball around an 18-hole theme-park festooned with obstacles.

Pirate Island Adventure Golf boasts an array of features, including a huge signature ship and waterfalls.

It will also be wheelchair-friendly.

The attraction has been developed at a cost of £775,000, the largest investment in the 39-year history of Abbey Hill Golf Centre.

It is expected new jobs will be created in the food and beverage team and service kiosks.

To cater for the additional visitors, the facility's spike bar and patio will also be upgraded.

MKNEWS BRIEFS

Netto to be turned into Asda

ASDA has announced plans to convert the Netto store in Wolverton with a £500,000 refit.

Garden centre wins six gongs

FROSTS Garden Centre in Woburn Sands swept the board at the recent North Thames Area Garden Centre Awards.

It picked up six awards, including the prestigious Best Destination Garden Centre for the third year running.

Managing director James Frost said: "I cannot thank the team enough for their commitment to the job and for making Frosts a favourite among the community."

MK gym to open its 14th club

MILTON Keynes-based gym, Fit4less, is about to open its 14th club in Stockport.

energie, the company behind the clubs, now has a new target of 45 clubs to be open in two years. More than a third of new members have never set foot in a fitness club before.

David Beattie, marketing director, said: "The Fit4less offering is attractive to a much wider audience."

Energy assessor company sold

KNOWLHILL-BASED National Energy Services (NES), in Davy Avenue, has been sold to multinational Kingfisher, the owner of the B&Q stores.

NES' services include training and qualifications for energy assessors and accreditation schemes for energy assessors and home inspectors.

Volvo pleads for apprentices

VOLVO dealership Marshall Milton Keynes has pleaded for youngsters to take on apprentiships in automotive aftersales.

It comes after Prime Minister David Cameron announced new Government funding of £25million to support 10,000 advanced and higher apprentiships.

Ian Proctor, general manager of Marshalls MK, said: "The motor retail network has amazing opportunities for young people, particularly in aftersales, with a fantastic career path."

LIFESTYLE & WELLNESS CLINIC

It's not you. It's your metabolism!

WOW!
Look at me now!

Emma
after

Wow, I am so impressed at how easy it really was to lose my weight with SureSlim.

I'd always been fairly slim as a teenager, but at 18 I had a riding accident, and hurt my back. I used it as an excuse to stop the exercise! I didn't notice the weight going on but I slowly got bigger.

I tried so many diets to shift the pounds – even hypnosis! My doctor prescribed slimming tablets, but they just sent my blood pressure sky-high.

I hadn't seen my cousin for a few months. We'd always been the heaviest ones in the family. When I saw her she'd lost 3 stone! I couldn't bring myself to say to her, "Well done, you look fantastic" because I was so jealous. She'd followed SureSlim plan, so the next day I signed up myself. I lost 11lbs in my first week!

I was a size 22 when I started the plan – if I could get to a size 14 I would be very happy. I'm a size 12 and I've totally exceeded my expectations. My life has completely changed and I couldn't be happier!

Your SureSlim eating plan will include:

SIMON DARNELL

WET

Nicole Scherzinger

TELL you what, let's start with the good things. Won't take long.

The tune's OK, nothing amazing, but better than average. It sounds like a song that Rihanna would turn down for being a bit tame and it's got a keyboard sound I haven't heard since Depeche Mode released Some Great Reward, so yeah, not bad. HOWEVER.

Yep, that's right, I gave this particular "however" it's own sentence and capital letters, and do you know why I did that?

Because the lyrics gave me no choice.

The words to this song represent one of the biggest however's you're likely to encounter this year, at least, I really hope so.

It's going to take something pretty "special" to top this one. No doubt, some of Ms Scherzinger's fans will be saying "it's got a good tune and you can dance to it, what more do you want?"

My answer would be "a bank balance with more numbers than a phone book and a house by the sea," but that's neither here nor there.

When it comes to pop songs, I do actually pay attention to what the singer's trying to communicate. With the right therapy and appropriate counselling, I may even manage to one day come to terms with some of the appalling lyrical cruelty my ears have been subjected to over the years, but not today.

Nope, there's no respite this week because the lyrics to Wet are terrible.

The story is this: Nicole feels like she's being watched by everyone around her, so she gets undressed and goes crowd surfing. Like you do when you want to stay incognito.

The establishment she's in also seems to have a knackered air conditioning system, because the poor girl's soaking wet and requires a man to hold a fan near her to cool her down.

"If you touch me there, please beware you can start up a fire," she advises him, giving the impression that she's spontaneously combusted in the past and therefore knows what triggers it. Oh, and she also sings "Sink or swim or you drown," with her songwriters unrealistically turning two options into three for no other reason than to pad out the chorus.

Honestly, songs like this have an unhappy knack of making pop stars look stupid, because they're the unfortunate ones who have to sing this rubbish.

Nicole Scherzinger's done her best here, but her songwriters really need to put a bit more effort in.

MILTON KEYNES THEATRE

ALADDIN

December 9-January 15

AS ANNOUNCED exclusively by MK NEWS, pop sensation Gareth Gates, pictured right, will star as Aladdin in this year's panto at Milton Keynes Theatre.

In an interview with this paper, Gareth, a good friend of Gavin and Stacey star Joanna Page who appeared last year in Dick Whittington, said he is looking forward to coming to the city after hearing good things about it from her.

He said: "I've been to Milton Keynes a few times, the city's great, but I've never performed there though so I'm looking forward to doing that.

"I've been a prince twice before in panto, I did Snow White in Woking last year, but this is my first time as Aladdin."

Asked if he would ever consider playing a baddie, he replied: "Not now - maybe when I'm a little bit older."

He has recently finished a worldwide and West End tour of Les Miserables, in which he played Marius, and is looking forward to getting back into panto.

"Les Mis is very sombre and serious," he said, "so it's nice just to have a bit of a laugh and mess around with the cast, instead of making people cry."

Off-stage, Gareth talked about a new band he has formed and which he has started writing an album for, even though they don't have a name yet.

"I've been in theatre for a while and during that you miss the record industry side of things, so I'd love to return to that.

"I've put a band together, and it's good to get together and jam for a few hours to see what sounds we find."

You can see Gareth Gates, alongside impressionist Paul Burling and other stars yet to be announced, in Aladdin by booking your tickets through the theatre's box office.

MK GALLERY

NEW ART MK

Until September 18

STUART Southwell is a photographic artist whose portraits explore the grotesque and comment on the identities people adopt within society.

A first class honours graduate from Northampton University, Stuart's photographic installation Grotesque Identities 2008-11 occupies an entire wall in MK Gallery's current New Art MK exhibition.

Conceived as a single work, it comprises 20 black and white photos of members of an imaginary and macabre family group, the Pinters.

Stuart uses himself to pose flamboyantly for each of these individual portraits, inhabiting their imagined personalities.

This includes wearing a grotesquely distorted face mask, which he first modeled in clay on a generic male head, and then cast in latex.

Stuart admits he enjoys establishing conflicting feelings in the viewer, a combination of horror and humour, as we contemplate the collection which is quirky, amusing and at the same time repulsive.

Stuart agrees that there is an element of performance in his work, dressing and posing in the second-hand and vintage clothes he has sourced and his bespoke masks.

But he points out that everyone performs and wears masks of one sort or another in life including, for example, the sometimes fictional identities people create for themselves on the internet.

The fragmentation of family names over time, especially by women having to drop their maiden names, and the interweaving of names of different nationalities is neatly observed by Stuart in the fictional family tree that accompanies the Grotesque Identities installation.

Each character's name and date of birth is recorded, tracking the mixing of English and European names across marriages.

The loss or gain of surnames is, after all, a significant part of identity and their gradual erosion or obsolescence across a family tree is something many of us will recognise. We may wish to contemplate this as part of our interrogation, along with Stuart, as to who we think we really are and how we present ourselves to the rest of the world.

Stuart has selected Eraserhead directed by David Lynch (cert 15) as his contribution to the Friday Night Film screening programme that accompanies the exhibition.

Presented in association with Independent Cinema MK, tickets cost £5 (concessions £3) and can be booked from the gallery on 01908 676900. To find out more about the New Art MK exhibition, or see a short video interview with Stuart, visit the gallery's website at www.mkgallery.org.

MOULTON COLLEGE

Moulton College has an unrivalled reputation for excellence in training for the Land Based, Construction and Furniture industries. Set in the rolling countryside of rural Northamptonshire, it is the ideal place to enjoy your course.

Moulton – Student Success Continues to be Impressive

The success achieved by Moulton college students continues to be impressive. This year nearly 2500 students completed long courses with 95% achieving success and nearly one third of these passing at Distinction level.

Moulton students are offered so much more than just a qualification when they study at the College. Their success is measured by the fact they obtain a National Qualification, a range of Functional or Key Skills and Industry Specific Qualifications. They also have to demonstrate their Employability Skills through experience gained during industrial placements or work undertaken in the commercial enterprises run by the College. All of these features combined make up the Moulton Awards and these are highly valued by employers.

The achievements of higher education students completing foundation and honours degrees by full time and part time study go from strength to strength, with first class honours degrees being awarded regularly. This enables our graduates to compete with the best in the land. There are also many opportunities to undertake post-graduate research using our outstanding facilities and linking into the wide range of employers we work with.

College Principal Stephen Davies said "We are rightly proud of the achievements of our students and aim to provide them with the necessary skills and qualifications required in the workplace.

This is even more important in today's world of work, and with over 90% of our students progressing onto higher or further education, employment or employment with training such as apprenticeships. This success is testament to the relentless pursuit of excellence of the staff at the College. Seeing student success is what we are all about.

Academic qualifications alone do not guarantee success and it is the additional skills, personal attributes and motivation of individuals that enable them to get ahead in the queue. Whilst studying at Moulton, the package we offer certainly helps well motivated students to progress and succeed in their careers."

Apprenticeships - the new Passport to Success

Work based training provides excellent opportunities for young people and adults to gain a combination of practical, work-based experience alongside a qualification.

This training route is one way to jump the queue for the best employment opportunities. With Intermediate at level 2, Advanced at level 3 and Higher Level apprenticeships at level 4 available, there is something for everyone. Successful completion of an apprenticeship not only helps you to move up the ladder in business but also provides another route into higher education.

Apprenticeships are available in a wide range of subjects including: Agriculture, Animal Care, Arboriculture, Brickwork, Carpentry & Joinery, Construction Management, Equine, Floristry, Furniture Making, Gamekeeping, Horticulture, Plumbing, Sports (Personal Training, Exercise and Fitness and Activity Leadership), Teacher Training and Wall and Floor Tiling.

With the many training opportunities offered by the College it no surprise that so many students are now choosing to study at their local college. Moulton can also boast a number of vocational skills academies around the county at South Northants (Silverstone), Daventry and East Northants (Higham Ferrers). These academies provide the same level of high quality facilities and training opportunities as those found at its main site.

For further details about any of these exciting opportunities please do not hesitate to contact Student Services or the Apprenticeship office on 01604 491131, email: enquiries@moulton.ac.uk or visit www.moulton.ac.uk

Moulton Sports Academies drive for further success

At a time when British golf is flying high, current Moulton Golf Academy Student Lauren Taylor is building on her own success.

Lauren was the youngest ever winner of the British Ladies Amateur Open and will represent Europe in the Junior Solheim Cup in September and the College wishes her the very best of luck.

Lauren is now a second year student and has already achieved a number of additional industry qualifications alongside studying for her Extended Diploma in Sport. As with all our Sports Academy students, regardless of sporting level, Lauren's weekly programme includes professional coaching and dedicated strength and conditioning sessions, as well as her academic programme which enables her to gain an in depth understanding of the structure of the sport and leisure industry for her next career stage, whether it be as professional golfer or studying a higher level course or gaining employment.

There are currently a limited number of places available across the range of our academies for a 2011-2012 start.

If you would like to know more about the Sports Academies on offer at Moulton College please contact Student services on 01604 491931, email enquiries@moulton.ac.uk or visit www.moulton.ac.uk

Importance of Agricultural Apprenticeships in Today's Business

With the increased emphasis on food security and the importance of maintaining domestic agricultural production it is encouraging for the industry to see an increase in the number of students who choose to study agriculture and related landbased subjects, both full time and particularly part time as an apprentice.

At Moulton College, student numbers have significantly increased over the last 5 years, with agriculture recruitment seeing a further 23% increase this academic year, suggesting that students and parents alike are viewing agriculture as a viable career option.

The National Farmers Union fully believe that apprenticeships are important in 'attracting and encouraging young people into a successful career in agriculture'. With signs of increased confidence in the industry and the need to encourage more people into agriculture it is important for employers to see the advantages of employing an apprentice or putting existing staff through an apprenticeship.

So why would you?

- It can help to create a skilled workforce and therefore increase business profits;
- Increases motivation and recognition of skills for existing staff, therefore reducing staff turnover (recent research shows that in more than 80% of cases people who studied as an apprentice are still with the same employer after 10 years);
- Provides a dedicated workforce – students who sign up for an apprenticeship programme are clearly committed to working in agriculture;
- The course can be set up specifically with the individual business in mind, allowing flexibility and filling the skills gap on the farm;
- Specialised streams in Mixed Farming, Crops, Livestock and Poultry are available;
- Financially, training costs are less than hiring highly skilled staff and trainees can be trained to suit your individual business needs;
- The apprentice will have a better understanding of the needs of the business;
- Option of flexible delivery to suit the business, especially in busy periods such as harvest;
- Very little paperwork (times have changed!) and support provided by the College to complete what paperwork there is.

All in all it is good to be able to report a positive picture for the agriculture industry in a time of change.

For further information on apprenticeships at Moulton College contact The Apprenticeship Office on 01604 491131, email: enquiries@moulton.ac.uk or visit www.moulton.ac.uk

Moulton College Host Great Britain Olympic Training Camp...

A contract was recently exchanged that has enabled Moulton College to host a number of Olympic Training Camps for the British Paralympic Fencing and Equestrian Teams.

The agreement has enabled training to take place at Moulton College in the run up to the London 2012 Paralympics. Participants from across the UK have already converged on Moulton during the months of May, June and August to take part in a hugely successful series of training camps. Seasoned competitors and younger hopefuls, including some up and coming wheelchair fencers from the Talented Athlete Scholarship Scheme (TASS), took part in the first residential Olympic Training Camp to be held in Northamptonshire. The camps are held at the Pitsford Sports Arena where athletes are provided with strength and conditioning training, physiotherapy support, technical skills training and nutritional information.

The official London 2012 Games Operations Team were also in attendance during the first camp in May, collecting athletes' measurements for their Team GB training wear and Stella McCartney designed formal wear, all supplied via Team GB partners Adiddas and Next.

Moulton College's partnership with the GB fencing Team has been hailed as a major achievement and a significant factor in the team's preparations in the run up to the London 2012 Olympics. One of the Olympic hopefuls commented that she travels all over the country to take part in fencing and the facilities at Moulton College were amongst the best she had ever seen, commenting that "the perfect wheelchair access and spotlessly clean facilities were tremendous". All of the squad gave Moulton College a massive seal of approval due to the ease of access and the layout of the facilities which enabled the camp to bring all of the technical requirements under one roof.

Work is also underway with the GB Para Equestrian team, where Moulton has been hosting training camps for the last 2 years in partnership with the British Equestrian Federation and the World Class Development Squad. Athletes have been attending specialist coaching camps at the College with a view to making the selection grade for the London Olympics.

Athletes have been able to train in the purpose built equestrian facilities and also access the world class equine therapy services that operate at the College. Riders can use the purpose built swimming pool and aqua treadmill to help to condition and prepare their horses for optimum performance.

With the addition of a specialist Human Sports Therapy and Injury Rehabilitation Centre, due to open its doors in the New Year, athletes from around the UK will be able to access a wider range of specialist world class resources, all based in the county of Northamptonshire.

WALL AND FLOOR TILING AT MOULTON GOES FROM STRENGTH TO STRENGTH

Wall and floor tiling is a specialist curriculum area that is not found anywhere else in Northamptonshire and is offered at the East Northants Vocational Skills Academy (ENVSA) at Higham Ferrers.

The Wall and Floor Tiling programmes at ENVSAprovide comprehensive training and instruction on how to tile professionally, together with relevant underpinning theory and associated knowledge. It is possible to study Wall and Floor Tiling on a full-time basis, day release or evenings at both level 1 and level 2. There are also apprenticeship opportunities for those students who have secured an appropriate employer. Apprenticeship student Darren Vaughan competed in the regional skill build completion for Wall and Floor Tiling and has secured a place in the National Wall And Floor Tiling Competition to be held in September at the Leeds College of Building. Academy Manager, Nick Brown said "this was an excellent result for Darren and I am very confident that he will excel in the national finals. He is a very competent tiler who has benefitted hugely from studying at ENVSA. I wish him every success"

For further information on courses available at the East Northants Vocations Skills Academy call 01933 354060, contact Student Services on 01604 491131 or e-mail on enquiries@moulton.ac.uk. Alternatively details can be found on www.moulton.ac.uk

Northampton Charities and Clubs investing in Young People

Despite bad news stories during the summer about disaffected youth across the country, a new apprenticeship scheme offered by Moulton College has found a positive tale to tell about Northamptonshire's young people and those who work with them. Starting now, the first group of 20 youth workers are beginning to formalise the skills and attributes they bring to their role. Through generating work based evidence and theory input they will complete both level 2 and level 3 Apprenticeships in Youth Work.
Employers, many of which are charities, have jumped at the chance to support their staff through the process with a view to gaining fully competent and qualified staff in what could be difficult few years for teenagers who are bearing the brunt of the current economic climate.
If you would like to know more about the Apprenticeship in Youth Work please contact Richard Dewing via enquiries@moulton.ac.uk or telephone 01604 491131

Building Construction Opportunities

Moulton literally does 'build construction opportunities' for students who study at the College.

Jason French is now a top industry professional. Starting as a site operative and successfully completing a National Diploma in Construction he became a Trainee Planner. He then went on to achieve a BSc in Construction Management with first class honours and became a senior planner in 2010. Not content with that success, Jason set up his own limited company as a planning consultant, and is currently working on a £110m project in Milton Keynes, building the new head offices for Network Rail.

CPD courses at the college
The Construction Industry is becoming increasingly accountable for all engineering works.
Moulton College offers a number of Higher Education modules for industry professionals to meet with Continuous Professional Development (CPD) requirements. This approach benefited Technical Manager, Stephanie Cannel who needed to supplement her knowledge of structural applications. Signing up for the Structural Analysis and Design module she said "this provided a broad spectrum understanding of fundamental engineering structures, their analysis and subsequent design for construction. I am now able to apply this knowledge more effectively in the workplace".
Samim Islami joined Moulton College in September 2009 and worked hard to become a plumber, recently passing the Level 2 course in Plumbing Studies. Samim is happy that the college has supported him to overcome his language barriers and said "Coming to the UK only two and a half years ago, I have had plenty of support from the college to assist with my English and studies and the overall qualification package is really unique and impressive."

Bigger and Better

The animal unit at East Northants Vocational Skills Academy, a satellite centre of Moulton College located just east of Higham Ferrers, is currently being expanded just two years after building the original unit.
Nick Brown, the Academy Manager says 'We have seen an unprecedented growth and popularity of Animal Welfare courses since September 2009 when courses were offered at the academy for the first time.
This is a really exciting development and will allow students greater access to a wider range of animal species. Some of the more unusual species that will be taking up residence will be Prairie Dogs, Flying Squirrels and Marmosets'.
Once the developments are complete it will then be possible to diversify the curriculum further to broaden the opportunities for both full-time and part-time students. Nick continued "this is one of the most thrilling developments at the academy since it opened in September 2006.

It will clearly provide an excellent resource to support our animal welfare provision, thus improving the students' experience during their chosen course of study".

MOULTON COLLEGE - NEW DEVELOPMENTS...

Exceptional new facilities for students

The past year has seen a flurry of major construction projects being undertaken at the College which will provide students with new and exciting state-of-the-art facilities.

Work is currently well underway on the construction of the new Leisure and Welfare Centre for staff and students on the Moulton College main site. This £6 million project will provide health and welfare centres, kitchen and dining facilities, common rooms and bars, together with an informal learning centre for higher education students, and is due to be completed early in the new year and officially open in February 2012.

The construction of a new £9 million Sports Therapy and Injury Rehabilitation Centre will be completed in November 2011 at the Pitsford Centre. It will incorporate specialist teaching facilities, a sports rehabilitation clinic to provide students with clinical experience, and a 25 metre swimming pool. The therapy and rehabilitation facilities will be available to external clients. The swimming pool will also be available for use by the wider community including schools, clubs and local organisations.

The centre will be fully operational in the New Year. As well as providing outstanding facilities for the College's many sports students and external clients, it is envisaged that this unique facility will offer support services for the Olympics.

The Wilson Countryside Management Centre at South Lodge will be officially opened in early September. The centre includes specialist facilities for game rearing, fish husbandry and countryside skills workshops and will provide a much needed resource.
Work is also well underway to provide additional lecture rooms and resources for the coming academic year to meet the increasing numbers of students looking join Moulton College for either full or part-time education.

South Northants and Daventry Vocational Skills Academies updates

Moulton College's Silverstone and Daventry Skills Academies predominantly cater for students in the south of Northamptonshire and the surrounding counties.

The carpentry workshops at Silverstone have recently been revamped, producing further assessment bays, while the brickwork workshop at Daventry has also undergone a makeover.
Animal Management is an area that continues to increase in popularity and, as a result, will be offered for the first time at Daventry this academic year. The Academy is being provided with its own purpose built Animal Welfare Centre that will house a variety of small animals.
Specialist housing will be provided for animals such as hamsters, mice, rats, gerbils, degus, chinchillas, sugar gliders, reptiles, amphibians and invertebrates.
Academy Manager, Sally Dismore explained, "Since offering Animal Management at our Academy in Silverstone, it became apparent that we were getting many requests from the Daventry area as well. As a result we have offered both Level 2 and Level 3 Animal Management courses at Daventry this academic year and are in the process of building practical facilities to complement the provision. These will be ready for the animals to be settled in before the students arrive. Staff are very excited at the prospect of welcoming the new student intake in September."
Other courses available at both Academies are Brickwork, Carpentry and Plumbing whilst Arboriculture is also offered at Silverstone.

Employment Counts in Landbased Education

Landbased students are provided with a greatly enriched learning experience at Moulton College.

Not only do they work towards a main, nationally recognised qualification but they also have the opportunity to achieve industry recognised competency certification such as Pesticide Application, Forklift Truck Operation or Chainsaw Use; improve their numeracy and literacy and also gain invaluable commercial experience and employability skills on one of the College's many commercial enterprises.
However, it doesn't stop there – coupled with an extensive tutorial programme encompassing health talks from the College Nurse to raise awareness of drug and alcohol abuse, religious awareness discussions with the College Chaplain, opportunities to undertake various community projects or fund raising for local and national charities, inter-college clay pigeon shooting competitions, international competitions, educational visits and study tours, the outcome is a much rounded individual with many life skills in addition to the all important main qualification.
The inclusive learning experience at Moulton College ensures that students maximise their chances of employment which is especially valuable in this current economic climate.

Moulton College to start unique Masters in Equine Behaviour and Welfare

From September 2011, Moulton College will be offering the first ever MSc in Equine Behaviour and Welfare which will run alongside the existing MSc in Animal Welfare at the College.

Many students graduating from degree courses may not be aware of the options to study on to Masters Level within various equine specialties, with only ten institutions in the UK offering an equine qualification at this level.
The MSc in Equine Behaviour and Welfare at Moulton College will be unique in its specialism of behavioural science and ethics and welfare in relation to horses. Students will have the opportunity to not only study theories of behaviour in relation to horses but also to apply that knowledge by working hands on with horses that have various behavioural issues. Students studying equine behaviour and welfare at Masters Level will be able to concentrate on specific areas of emerging equine science, have access to scientific conferences, analyse scientific journal material and research a particular area that interests them. This includes the opportunity to complete a research project which can be put forward for general publication if suitable.
MSc Course Manager Louise Dentith said 'The Masters course is a real opportunity for those with a taste for study to really focus and improve their academic skills using the excellent equine facilities at Moulton College, including the Equine Therapy Centre which is approved by the British Racehorse Authority, it will also allow research into highly specialised areas of behaviour and welfare assessment'.
Students will be actively encouraged to produce research material that focuses on applying knowledge to practical situations that can aid the horse industry, help with their future careers and utilise applied practical skills to increase their employability.
For more information on the MSc in Equine Behaviour and Welfare or any other courses offered at Moulton College please contact Student Services on 01604 491131, e-mail enquries@moulton.ac.uk or visit the college website at www.moulton.ac.uk

USE YOUR IMAGINATION

The tutors on the National Diploma in Art and Design(3D Design) course have recently received an e-mail from Steffan Lovesay-Bonham, saying " I would just like to say a massive thank you to all my tutors, you have all been awesome and I'm really grateful for everything." Steffan has recently secured his choice of a place at Coventry University.

Eight out of the twelve students who finished the course this year had secured confirmed places at their chosen University by mid-July, considerably ahead of their "A" level contemporaries, as they did not have to wait for results to be posted in August or negotiate the UCAS clearing system.
Great emphasis is put on the commercial experience gained by the students at Moulton. Just one of the wide range of experiences undertaken each year by students studying Interior Design on the National Diploma in Art and Design(3D Design) was to develop ideas on a three week project set by the London based design company" Imagination." The students then travelled to London to present their ideas to designers from the company in their boardroom. A great day out was had by all, ending with well-deserved refreshments on the terrace of this world renowned company.

Moulton College at Skillbuild

Regional Heat Winner of SkillBuild 2011 – Wall & Floor Tiling

NVQ Wall and Floor Tiling student Darren Vaughan recently competed in the regional heats of Skillbuild. Darren won the heat and gained enough points to allow him to take part in the Skillbuild National Final taking place at Leeds College of Building. Darren showed fantastic ability during the competition, creating the piece from the given drawing to an extremely high standard. The on-going training he receives at Moulton has enabled Darren to improve his skills and he is looking forward to competing in the Nationals in September.

Regional Heat Winner of SkillBuild 2011 - Brickwork

Jamie Shellard began his career at Moulton College in July 2007, attending as an apprentice on the NVQ2 qualification whilst working for Compton Estates.
In 2010, whilst working for Chris Begley Building Ltd., he decided that he would like to complete his NVQ3. Following an internal 'skill build' competition, during which he produced excellent work, Jamie went on to represent Moulton College at the regional heats in Nottingham.
Jamie won the competition with a very highly marked piece of work. He is obviously delighted by his achievement and has been an excellent student throughout his time at the College.

Regional Heats of Skillbuild - Stonemasonry

Whilst completing their NVQ qualifications in stonemasonry, students Jon Rayfield, Mark Manby and Levi Bavester gained the necessary skills required to compete in the UK Masonry Skills Challenge held at Bath City College.
All three students showed tremendous skills during the competition and the team gained a second place overall. Jon and Levi secured enough points individually to progress to the National Finals to be held at the Leeds College of Building in September.
The College has gained a reputation of being one of the leading masonry colleges in the country and it is the dedication and training from the expert tutors that has been instrumental in the students developing the required skills to compete at a national level.

HERITAGE OPEN DAYS WEEKEND

AS THE city gears up for its biggest heritage event of the year, we bring you the second of three articles leading up to the exciting event.

There will be a fantastic range of themed events planned to celebrate the heritage of Milton Keynes, including a medieval fun day, museums bursting with great activities and other historic sites, arts and attractions opening for free.

Medieval mayhem is the theme of a Family Fun Day run by the City Discovery Centre at Bradwell Abbey on Sunday, September 11. Gates open at 11am with re-enactors, archery, falconry, hog roast, medieval market and much more.

On Saturday, September 10, Milton Keynes Museum is having a children's activities day with transport fun, science demonstrations by Professor Beamish, horse and cart rides and shopkeepers working in the vintage shops.

If you can't make it don't worry because the museum is also free the other three days of Heritage Open Days.

Bletchley Park and the Cowper and Newton Museum in Olney are also opening their doors for fun activities and Living Archive has produced Festival of Britain themed exhibitions in the central and Bletchley libraries.

Paul Sanders, assistant director for Heritage for Milton Keynes Council, said: "Our heritage organisations work very hard throughout the year to provide fun and enjoyable activities for our residents and visitors.

"This free four day event highlights what they do and I hope people will get involved and support them by visiting as many venues and events as they can."

To celebrate and promote these events, a brochure is available and an accompanying website has been designed thanks to the council, the MK Heritage Association, the Parks Trust and other heritage partners.

To get your brochure about all the events, taking place between Thursday, September 8 and Sunday, September 11, visit Discover Milton Keynes Showcase on the first floor of the Central Library, shopping centres, or any library or heritage venue.

Alternatively, you can visit the Milton Keynes Heritage Open Days website at www.mkheritageopendays.com to plan your visits.

There will be fun for all ages with a wide range of themed events as part of the Heritage Open Days weekend

BLETCHLEY PARK

BLETCHLEY Park's annual Armed Forces and Enigma Reunion takes place this weekend.

Celebrating the role of the armed forces throughout history, and in particular the role of the cadet forces, the event will look at how Bletchley Park assisted them during the Second World War.

A Battle of Britain Memorial Flight Flypast is scheduled for both days with a Spitfire on the Saturday and Dakota on Sunday (subject to weather conditions and aircraft serviceability).

On Sunday, the annual Enigma Reunion, one of Bletchley Park's most special events, will see about 100 former veterans return to their former workplace for a memorial service with the people who helped to break the Enigma and other codes during the Second World War.

The weekend will also see a display by the Vintage Military Amateur Radio Society of equipment spanning the last 100 years, which will show how communication in the armed forces has changed over time and become ever more vital.

Second World War re-enactors dressed in uniforms and civilian costumes of the day will bring the park to life, with highlights including a 1940s fashion show by Allied Assortment.

The event runs from 10.30am-5pm each day.

Further details are available at www.bletchleypark.org.uk.

LINFORD LAKES

THE Big Fish 2011 comes to Linford Lakes on Saturday between 10am and 6pm offering a great day out for all the family.

World fly-casting champion Hywel Morgan will be showing you how it's done and EastEnders and Strictly Come Dancing star Scott Maslen and avid angler will be making an appearance.

MasterChef of Great Britain Scott Ratcliffe will be giving a live demonstration and other attractions will include an aerial falconry display, bucking bronco, laser clay and archery, giant inflatables and all day bar and hog roast.

Entry is free but donations are welcome towards The Big Fish's main aim - raising money for The Sick Children's Trust, which pays to create 'home from home' facilities where families can stay with seriously ill children.

Dom Morgan, The Big Fish founder, said: "Great Linford Lakes are, in my opinion, the most stunning fishery in the country, so the ideal location for the anglers competing and for the public to enjoy what really promises to be a great family day out."

HEART FM COLUMN

HEART breakfast show presenters Stuart and Natalie wake you up each weekday morning and write to you each week in MK NEWS.

With the A-level results in, it led us to relive that fateful day and find out what we'd want to pass an A-level in.

Natalie said bridesmaid etiquette, while Stuart's was tact and diplomacy.

The Inbetweeners movie has come out and the boys told us why we should see the movie.

Hundreds of fans queued for hours to meet cast members Simon Bird, Joe Thomas, James Buckley and Blake Harrison as they walked for the first time on the red carpet. The film sees four boys who play the nation's favourite sixth formers on a lads' holiday.

We found out how the premiere was for them. Simon said: "Incredible, none of us expected anyone to be there."

Joe admitted: "It was a really poignant moment for all of us, as it was the end of the show, so we were all nervous and feeling a bit sick."

Joe, aka gaff-prone Simon, also told us about one of his favourite scenes, which involved him diving into the sea.

"I was quite pleased I got to do it, even though it was a fairly non-spectacular dive," he said.

He went onto say: "The film is a bonding experience for the boys, as they rely on each other a bit more, which they shouldn't as they're all pretty unreliable."

Blake thinks the film will change what people think of them.

"Parents will see they're pretty harmless," he said.

"In their world the boys think all this amazing, mental stuff is going on, but really when you step back and look at it, it's not that mental and parents will see it for what it is."

The film is great if you don't mind cringeworthy reminders of our teenage years.

Stuart and Natalie present Heart Breakfast from Monday to Friday, 6-10am, on Heart 103.3FM.

SAINTS COMPETITION

THE Saints are back in Aviva Premiership Rugby action and this season promises to be even bigger.

MK NEWS has teamed up with the Saints to give you the chance to be at the first match of the season - for free.

Fresh from their Heineken European Cup final in May, the team's coaches have bolstered the squad, bringing in the best quality from across the world to lead the Saints Nation onwards and upwards in the search for silverware.

Tom May (England), Paul Doran Jones (England), Ryan Lamb (England Saxons), Noah Cato (England Saxons), Samu Manoa (United States), George Pisi (Samoa), Martin Roberts (Wales) and Vasily Artemyev (Russia) will all bring their unique talents to the black, green and gold as they march to battle the best teams in England and Europe.

This journey has already started with pre-season wins over Russia and Toulouse and on Sunday Gloucester visit Franklin's Gardens in the opening round of Aviva Premiership Rugby 2011/12.

The Cherry and Whites are the reigning LV Cup champions and last season reached the Aviva Premiership Rugby semi-finals

We've offering a family ticket (for two adults and two under 16s) to the game.

For your chance to win, answer this simple question: How many Saints players are in the England squad for 2011 Rugby World Cup?

Send your entry, along with your name, address and contact details, to competitions@mk-news.co.uk, or MK NEWS, 1 Diamond Court, Fox Milne, MK15 0DU by 4pm on Friday. The editor's decision is final.

If you're not the lucky winner, there are still tickets available for the game. Visit www.northamptonsaints.co.uk/tickets or call 01604 581000.

The Council is satisfied that the temporary speed restriction is necessary to enable maintenance works to be carried out in safety on the carriageways and verges including grass cutting, gully cleaning, litter picking, street lighting, mechanical sweeping, lining maintenance, stud replacement and all other related maintenance activities. It is anticipated that the temporary speed restriction will come into effect on Thursday 1st September 2011 until 31st March 2013, inclusive and will take effect on specific roads at specific times during the above period only when indicated by the appropriate traffic signs.

There shall be no exemptions from the provisions of this Order except for emergency service vehicles and Special Forces drivers within the armed forces on operational duties.

The Order will come into operation on Thursday 1st September 2011 and will continue in force for a maximum period of 18 months or until the said works have been completed, which ever is the sooner. If the works are not completed within the maximum period stated, a further Order may be made with the consent of the Secretary of State. The provisions of this Order shall apply when indicated by traffic signs.

Any person committing a breach of this Order will be liable upon prosecution to such fine as is prescribed by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984.

THE COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF MILTON KEYNES
(REDWAY (PART) ADJACENT TO THE MOSQUE, PEVEREL DRIVE, GRANBY) (TEMPORARY CLOSURE) ORDER 2011

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the Borough of Milton Keynes has on 31 August 2011 made an Order under Section 14(1) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 to enable the resurfacing of a redway to take place. The effect of this is to temporarily prohibit all access to that part of the redway commencing from the entrance gates to the Mosque at Peverel Drive, Granby, Milton Keynes continuing in a general westerly direction to its junction with the railway at Bridge Number 159. It is anticipated that the closure will be in effect on Monday 5 September 2011 until Friday 30 September 2011, both dates inclusive, however the redway will be re-opened sooner if works are complete and it is safe to do so.

While the redway is closed the alternative route will be via the redway beside the V4 Watling Street in a northerly direction past Drew Court then bear right and follow the redway across the bridge over the A5 dual carriageway. Continue along the redway under the A421/H8 Standing Way to the redway beside the A421/H8 Standing Way, then turn right. Continue along the redway beside the V6 Grafton Street in a southerly direction to Redmoor Roundabout and follow the redway across Redmoor Roundabout to the redway beside Peverel Drive, Granby, turn right and follow the redway beside Peverel Drive in a westerly direction to the entrance gates to the Mosque, and vice versa.

There shall be no exemptions from the provisions of the Order.

The Order will come into operation on 5 September 2011 and will continue in force for a period of up to a maximum of 6 months or until the said works have been completed, whichever is the earlier. If the works are not completed within the period stated, a further order may be made.

Any person committing a breach of the Order will be liable upon prosecution to such fine as prescribed by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984.

THE COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF MILTON KEYNES
(PART OF PUBLIC FOOTPATH NUMBER 15 (CANAL TOWPATH), AND BRIDGE NUMBER 78, GREAT LINFORD) (TEMPORARY CLOSURE) ORDER 2011

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the Borough of Milton Keynes has on 31 August 2011 made an Order under Section 14(1) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 the effect of which is to prohibit all access to public Footpath Number 15 (canal towpath) and to Bridge Number 78 at Great Linford, Milton Keynes, whilst works to construct a new canal towpath are carried out along the footpath (canal towpath) from its junction at Marsh Drive at Bridge Number 77, to its junction with Broadway Avenue at Bridge Number 78, and whilst repair works are carried out to Bridge Number 78. It is anticipated that the closures will be in effect from Monday 5 September 2011 to Monday 6 February 2012 inclusive. The affected footpath/canal towpath and bridge may be re-opened sooner if the works are complete and it is safe to do so.

The alternative route whilst the redway/canal towpath is closed will be via the redway adjacent to Marsh Drive, turn right onto the redway known as Railway Walk, turn right onto the redway adjacent to Broadway Avenue to rejoin Footpath Number 15 (the canal towpath) at Bridge Number 78, and vice versa.

The alternative route whilst Bridge Number 78 is closed will be via the redway on the west side of the canal, crossing the canal at Bridge Number 78B and returning on Footpath Number 15 (the canal towpath) on the east side of the canal, to return to Bridge Number 78 and vice versa.

The alternative route will be signed in accordance with Chapter 8 of the Traffic Signs Manual and advance information signs will be placed at either end of the lengths of footpath/canal towpath and bridge to be closed a few days before the works are due to take place.

There shall be no exemptions from the provisions of the Order.

The Order will come into operation on 5 September 2011 and will continue in force for a period of up to a maximum of 6 months or until the said works have been completed.

Any person committing a breach of the Order will be liable upon prosecution to such fine as prescribed by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984.

THE COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF MILTON KEYNES
(REDWAY (PART) ADJACENT TO GIFFARD PARK SCHOOL, KNEBWORTH GATE, GIFFARD PARK) (TEMPORARY CLOSURE) ORDER 2011

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the Borough of Milton Keynes intends, in not less than seven days from the date of this notice, to make an Order under Section 14(1) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984. Its effect will be to temporarily prohibit all access along that length of redway that runs adjacent to Giffard Park School and parallel to Knebworth Gate from its junction with Broadway Avenue, Giffard Park to its junction with the V10 Brickhill Street.

The Council is satisfied that the temporary closure is necessary because of the likelihood of danger to the public whilst a mobile crane delivers and installs a modular classroom into the school grounds. It is anticipated the temporary closure will take place on Saturday the 10th September 2011 between the hours of 7.00am and 6.00pm. However, if there is inclement weather forecast over this period the closure will take place on either Sunday 11th, Saturday 17th or Sunday 18th September 2011.

The restrictions will be in force on the dates and at the times shown when indicated by the appropriate traffic signs.

The alternative route for access will be via the existing footways adjacent to Broadway Avenue, Knebworth Gate and Brickhill Street and vice versa.

There will be no exemptions from the provisions of this Order.

The proposed Order will come into operation on Saturday the 10th September 2011 and will continue in force for a maximum period of 6 months or until the likelihood of danger to the public has been alleviated, which ever is the sooner. If the danger remains up to the maximum period stated, a further Order may be made with the consent of the Secretary of State.

Any person committing a breach of the Order will be liable upon prosecution to such fine as is prescribed by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984.

DIRTY WEEKEND

1st - 4th & 8th - 11th September 2011

Fancy a Dirty Weekend?

Perrys Used Cars in Bletchley will be giving motorists the opportunity to join in their dirty weekend not once, but twice!

With the new 61 registration plate driving into dealerships from the 1st September, Perrys Used Cars are preparing to be inundated with part exchange models which will be available for customers to view as they arrive on the forecourt - no matter what condition they are in!

Stephen Thompson, Used Car Manager at Perrys, commented: "Why not visit Perrys Dirty Weekend between the 1st – 4th and 8th – 11th September where we will be giving our customers the best choice and prices possible on a whole host of makes and models including, Ford, Peugeot, Vauxhall and Citroen.

"With used vehicles coming into the dealership everyday once the new registration plate arrives, we have little time to prepare the cars for the showroom which is why the Dirty Weekend gives customers the chance to view the vehicles as they arrive, before they have even had a chance to be cleaned! "

Despite the state vehicles may arrive in, cars purchased throughout the Dirty Weekend will have no buyer's fees and be fully serviced and valeted with any blemishes attended to before delivery!"

Due to the volume of vehicles arriving each day, fresh stock won't appear on the website for up to seven days. So, if you are thinking about part exchanging your car or just looking for something new this September, why not visit Perrys Used Cars on Bilton Road, Bletchley where you will get the chance to part exchange or view a wide range of models no matter what state they are in! Alternatively if there is a specific make or model you are looking for why not call Perrys on 01908 360222 and a member of staff will be in touch should the model you are looking for come in!

Company or lease car returns ...

Refurbishing your fleet vehicles can save you big time. The cost of repairs from Finishing Touch is a fraction of what you could very well end up paying in penalties for returning damaged vehicles to your leasing agent / fleet provider.
Our approach to fleet repair work is simple - restore vehicles to meet the guidelines laid out in your Fleet Wear and Tear documentation so you avoid penalty fees

MK SUNDAY LEAGUE

THE New City Heating Milton Keynes Sunday League kicks off its 2011/12 season this Sunday.

The league has now been split into two divisions with both Premier Division and Division One featuring 12 teams.

Most of the teams are in action in the first round of the Knock-Out Cup with the current holders and last year's Premier Division Champions, Stony Stratford Town, starting their defence of the trophy against New City Saints.

Newcomers to the league, MK United, Stacey Bushes and Stantonbury Social, take on Loughton Athletic, Trade 2U – the Division 1 winners from last year – and Punjab Utd respectively.

Other first round fixtures see last year's Division Two winners Wolverton Town take on last year's Alf Carters Memorial Cup winners Stantonbury Social A.

MK Legends (formerly Three Trees) take on Kings Arms, Padbury AFC take on FC Lifesearch and Willen entertain AFC Santander.

The one fixture in the Premier Division sees Great Mile Ash entertain Sunday League veterans Open University.

There are two fixtures in Division One, which see last year's Supplementary Cup winners FC MMIX take on Olney Town and Stantonbury Social B play Buckingham Utd.

MK Dons assistant manager JOHN GORMAN writes exclusively for MK NEWS every week

We didn't have a Bank Holiday Monday, it was just a normal day for us.

Training was held as normal and we held a full session to get ready for Tuesday's match.

Maybe we could have done with a rest after a hectic week. Obviously we have now lost Sam Baldock to West Ham – he's a great kid and we wish him well as it's a fantastic move for him.

It meant that we had to get a player in and we moved quickly for Charlie MacDonald. Thursday was a bit of a rush for myself and Karl, as it was late in the day and we were still working on the deal.

Charlie and the physio Simon Crampton were still working on it at midnight and there were still things to be completed the next morning.

Then Charlie had to train with us on Friday ahead of the game against Stevenage. We were just as excited about the 1-0 win as we were after the 4-0 Carling Cup victory at Norwich.

If you saw our reaction at the end then you could easily tell that it meant a lot to myself and Karl.

We had a couple of injuries and there was a shortage of height in our team, and their direct style of play caused us some problems.

We didn't create as many chances, but they set out to try and stop us.

In the end it was a real battling performance and we still played some great football, and the goal was a great move.

It was a lovely chipped ball over the top from Stephen Gleeson and on another day Luke Chadwick could have scored himself, but he unselfishly squared it to Charlie who scored on his debut.

The team from the Football League Show were down for the day and it was nice to show people some of my artwork.

Tomorrow (Thursday) I will be signing copies of my book 'Gory Tales' between 5.30pm and 7pm at the club shop.

It took about a year to write and since I finished there has been stuff for a few more chapters - Dons could make a whole book. Any money I receive from it myself will go to Sebastian's Action Trust, that offers respite holidays for sick children and their families.

Charlie McDonald heads MK Dons ahead against his old club

Dons stung by Bees

dangerous corner and Adam Thompson arrived unmarked at the back post to thump a header past David Martin.

Brentford weren't level for long though as Chadwick, who is enjoying a rich vein of form in front of goal, fired Dons back in front.

The midfielder drove into the box through a parting visiting defence and slid a cool finish past Lee to claim his fifth of the season with August not yet at an end.

Robinson's side seemed comfortable after the second goal but disaster struck on the stroke of half-time when centre back Shaun Williams was shown a straight red card.

The Irishman bundled over Myles Weston who had a clear run on goal, and as the Brentford striker had an obvious goalscoring opportunity, referee Lee Collins had no choice but to flash red.

Just moments after his dismissal, Marcus Eger rifled in a thundering volley from the edge of the box which Martin superbly beat away.

With only ten on the pitch, Dan Powell was sacrificed for Dean Lewington, with the club captain slotting in to replace Williams at centre back in an attempt to shore up the defence.

In contrast, Brentford pushed Gary Alexander forward to partner Weston, who had been operating in somewhat of a lone role in the first half.

Dons had an early penalty shout when Karleigh Osborne tangled with MacDonald in the box, but it was waved away and the Bees made their numerical advantage count only ten minutes after the restart.

Lewington didn't enjoy the start to the half he would have wanted, as the more forward-thinking Alexander took advantage of the skipper's lapse before sliding the ball into Martin's left corner.

Gleeson and Potter, two midfielders who Robinson probably wanted to rest completely with Saturday's trip to Carlisle in mind, were brought on after 62 minutes, the latter replacing O'Shea who limped off the pitch.

MK survived a worrying goalmouth scramble, as the Dons defence, lacking usual lynchpin Gary MacKenzie looked shakier than in recent weeks. However, Eger was foiled by an excellent saving tackle by Flanagan, before Potter curled a free-kick narrowly over.

Dons mounted some promising breaks during the second half but these came to nothing, and Brentford snuck in front on 80 minutes.

Adam Smith was booked for scything down Sam Wood out wide and Craig Woodman's resultant free-kick was headed home by Alexander for his second of the game.

Dons heads didn't drop though and George Baldock's low cross was turned into his own net by Jonathan Douglas shortly afterwards to set up the shoot-out.

Dons: Martin, Smith, Bowditch, MacDonald (Gleeson 62), Chicksen, Williams, Flanagan, Powell (Lewington 46), Baldock, O'Shea (Potter 62), Chadwick. Unused subs: Bragg, MacKenzie.

Brentford: Lee, O'Connor (Reeves 61), Woodman, Bean, Eger, Douglas, Weston (Grella 65), Forrester (Wood 77), Osborne, Thompson, Alexander. Unused subs: Moore, Spillane.

New Don: Charlie MacDonald

Debut goal for new signing MacDonald

Robinson said: "I'd like to thank Sam publically for everything he's done for the football club. I think the world of him, I spoke to him before the game to see how training went. I hope that he has a wonderful career.

"He's now moved on to Sam Allardyce who I know very well, and I know he'll get even more out of Sam Baldock.

"My job is not about Sam Baldock anymore, it's about the football club.

"I brought Charlie in and it's almost been the perfect debut for him."

When asked if he was pleased that the Baldock transfer saga is over, so he can concentrate on the football side of things, Robinson said he wasn't, 'because Sam's gone'.

He said: "It was always lingering wasn't it, it was something that we've always known about.

"I've always backed the player to score goals. I always knew that he could play one division up, definitely, as for two up, time will tell on that."

Robinson said he didn't foresee other players exiting in the transfer window, which closes at 11pm today (Wednesday).

However, he may still be looking to bring in a new centre back to the club – possibly on a temporary deal during the loan window which opens in a week's time.

By that point, Premier League clubs will have finalised their 25 man squads, meaning that players left out will be available for loan moves away.

The manager said that the hectic week was probably one of the best in the club's history, both on and off the pitch.

He said: "We're financially secure now for two years, so the Chairman's got a smile on his face.

"The players have as well, because after the hard work and dedication in pre-season we've now got three victories in seven days."

Speaking on the Stevenage game itself, Robinson revealed that the opposition team bus had initially stopped him from driving into the stadium.

Then, when the game started, he felt as if the same bus had been driven out onto the pitch.

He said: "We pride ourselves on playing good football and I thought we still tried to play, but I thought in the first half we should almost be apologising to the paying public.

"It was difficult as we couldn't get round them, we couldn't get over them and we couldn't get through them.

"We were doing things like shooting from 40 and 50 yards, that's just not us.

"I told them in the second half you've got to be a little bit more calculated in the performance, if the goal comes in the 50th minute, the 60th minute, or the 95th minute, it's about winning.

"I'm so happy in the fact that we stayed patient and we stayed strong."

FORMULA ONE

Red Bulls return with superb 1-2

SEBASTIAN Vettel strengthened his hopes of securing back-to-back Formula One world titles with his and Red Bull's first Belgian Grand Prix victory.

It is now seven wins from 12 races this season for Vettel who holds a 92-point cushion over team-mate Mark Webber after the Australian finished second for the second successive year.

After his 17th career win, Vettel is in such a commanding position he has now scored more points so far this season – 259 – than he did in winning the title last year with 256.

The result was also the tenth one-two for Vettel and Webber, making them the fourth most successful pairing in F1 history.

The win was Vettel's first in four races, marking a return to form for the city-based team following the summer break.

It came after Red Bull faced concerns about their tyres, which were damaged in qualifying.

Both Webber and Vettel started on blistered rubber and came in as early as laps three and five respectively to change things up.

The safety car was brought out after Lewis Hamilton's race ended after a lap 13 collision with Kamui Kobayashi, and Vettel came in again.

After rejoining the pack he used his fresh set of rubber to storm into a lead he wouldn't relinquish.

It was an excellent drive by the German who managed his tyres superbly, pushing when he needed to and conserving when he needed to.

A radio error meant Webber stayed out on the track without pitting for longer than planned, but the Australian, who signed a new deal to stay with Red Bull during 2012 this week, was also in superb form to claim second spot on the podium.

However, the mistake did prevent him from challenging his team-mate.

Vettel said: "It was not easy with the tyres. The beginning of the race was more research and science than racing and we sacrificed a lot by stopping very early. We had a good feeling though and I came in again when the safety car came out, just to see how they were.

"I can judge a bit from looking at the inside, but when you're doing 300kph or more and the tyres are always spinning rather than stopped, you can't really take the time to see, so it was crucial to come in and have a closer look. I'm very happy with the result.

Back to winning ways: Sebastian Vettel in Belgium.

"It's a big relief after all the discussions we had going into the race.

Webber added: "The team wanted me to pit, but when I got the instructions of what to do in the pit lane I was the wrong side of the pit wall – I never heard the call to come in.

"I was worried, but we kept going and the car behaved well. I drove well from then on and we got a good result in what was one of the team's best ever one-two finishes."

The Australian said his decision to sign a new deal, which will end speculation about his future for the short term, was a 'no brainer'.

He said: "I still think I'm driving well and the team is performing to a very high level. I enjoy racing against these guys at the front and I'd miss that a lot."

The 35-year-old added that team order controversies, which he has been unhappy about in the past, were now behind Red Bull.

"Everything's fine with that now," he said. "You know I wouldn't be super-happy if it wasn't like that."

MK and Bletchley clash in trial match

Milton Keynes 18 Bletchley 38

MILTON Keynes had their first chance to play to a large crowd of supporters at The Valley when they took on Bletchley.

It was the first game for MK following the trials tournament at Stratford-upon-Avon on August 20, when they turned in a very credible result with a win against Oxford Harlequins', a draw against hosts Stratford and a defeat against Dudley.

Bletchley arrived with strong support, as normal, for this local derby, and the game was played in all weather conditions apart from snow.

Milton Keynes were first on the board with a try from winger Rob Matthews and within 15 minutes they scored a second through full back Dan Walker.

Both conversions were missed to leave Milton Keynes ten points up.

It was a wake up call for Bletchley and they duly responded with two tries, one converted, to take the lead 12-10.

Milton Keynes went back in front by one point with a penalty slotted over by Wayne Kelly, but Bletchley finished the half with their third try to lead at the break 17-13.

Into the second half and Bletchley went further ahead with a try and touch line conversion, but Scott Aspinall then went over for MK to pull the score back to 24-18.

These were the final points of the game for MK though, with Bletchley adding two converted tries to complete their win.

BASKETBALL

MK LIONS claimed an 85-80 victory over the visiting St Joseph's University on Saturday night.

Stefan Gill lead the way against the Americans with 35 points, and despite 33 from Zach O'Brien for St Joe's the Lions held out to take the win.

It was a very young Lions side who triumphed, with most of the first team squad due to begin pre-season training shortly.

Another friendly clash will take place at MK Lions Arena on September 16 at 7.30pm, when Team USA will be the guests.

The side is made up of touring American players who are looking to seal professional deals and will provide tough opposition.

On Saturday, the Lions' annual three on three tournament takes place in front of Xscape. Anyone can take part, for more info visit www.mklions.com.

Those buying on the day of the game will pay the new 2011/12 prices of £12 per adult, £8 per concession and £5.50 per child.

But the prices for fans buying in advance are £11 per adult and £7 per concession, with the child price remaining the same.

Lightning General Manager Vito Rausa said: "You not only save money on match night prices but there's no standing in a queue to get in."

LOCAL CRICKET

NEWPORT Pagnell's clash with Studham was the only game to be completed in the Four Counties Division One as rain played havoc with Saturday's fixtures.

After opting to bowl, Newport skittled bottom club Studham for just 86.

Three bowlers grabbed two wickets apiece, and Newport only needed 10.1 overs to chase down the target.

Paul Braddy finished unbeaten on 41 and James Fletcher made 33 in the eight wicket win.

In Division One of the Cherwell League, Bletchley Town's big clash against Oxford II towards the bottom of the table was also abandoned due to rain, and Stony Stratford's game against Horton House in the Northants League Premier Division also fell victim to the weather after getting started.

HOCKEY

TWO England players will be attending MK Hockey Club's open day on Saturday.

Anna Bennett and Chloe Rogers will be at the event at Woughton on the Green to meet players, pass on tips and sign autographs.

The event runs from 10am to 5pm and is packed with events for 13-year-olds to elite players, and all are welcome. For more, visit www.mkhockey.co.uk.

Darren Potter is consoled by his team mates after missing Dons' third spot kick

Penalty heartbreak sends Dons to early Trophy exit

BY DAN PALMER

MK Dons 3 Brentford 3 (Brentford win 4-3 on penalties)

DONS were knocked out of the Johnstone's Paint Trophy at the first hurdle last night after a penalty shootout defeat to League One rivals Brentford.

The Bees tucked away all four of their spot kicks but Darren Potter saw his effort saved low to the left when taking the third and Stephen Gleeson blazed the Dons' final effort over.

Before the drama, ten man Dons had battled to a 3-3 draw in an exciting southern section clash at stadiummk.

With the club in the middle of a tough schedule of fixtures, boss Karl Robinson made a number of changes to his side.

Youngsters George Baldock, Adam Chicksen and Tom Flanagan all made the team, and winger Jay O'Shea was given his first start for the club since signing in the summer.

Luke Chadwick was given the captain's armband with both Dean Lewington and Stephen Gleeson on the bench, and new striker Charlie MacDonald started against Brentford barely 72-hours after leaving the London club for Milton Keynes.

O'Shea, who was impressive during pre-season but has had to settle for substitute appearances so far, fired in the first effort on goal after three minutes with a shot on the turn which Richard Lee easily gathered.

Dons were the better side in the early going and only a fine save from Lee kept out Dean Bowditch's sweetly struck volley which he smashed in at goal first time.

Chicksen, playing at full-back, then advanced deep into Brentford territory, but his shot took a wicked deflection and spun over for a corner.

O'Shea whipped it in and MacDonald came back to haunt his former employers, glancing a header past Lee at the near post to bag his second goal in as many Dons appearances.

The Bees had barely been in it but last season's finalists hit back on 26 minutes after some slack marking in the Dons defence.

Dons lose one of their own

DONS lost one of their own on Friday when star striker Sam Baldock completed his transfer to West Ham United.

The 22-year-old, who has risen through the ranks at the club after signing aged just 14, has joined the Hammers for an undisclosed fee which is believed to have a combined worth in excess of £2million.

After a deal to take him to Peterborough United collapsed in the summer, rumours have been rife that other clubs would try and lure Baldock away from stadiummk.

Scouts from a number of sides have been watching him this season and he has been in irresistible form in front of them – grabbing a stunning hat-trick against Chesterfield and then scoring a superb second in the Carling Cup mauling of Norwich.

Such performances made enquiries from various suitors inevitable and West Ham have won the race to sign the striker.

At one point it looked like Southampton might be Baldock's destination, but the Hammers trumped the Saints with their offer and Sam has headed to east London.

Dons boss Karl Robinson moved swiftly to replace the lost firepower, signing Charlie MacDonald from Brentford on the same day as Baldock's move, but before his switch to West Ham went through.

The striker was a transfer target in the summer, as Robinson wanted him to play in behind Baldock, but financial constraints stopped any deal in its tracks at that point in time.

However, with the wheels in motion on Baldock's move, Dons were able to beat off competition from League One rivals to bring in their man for an undisclosed sum.

He made a perfect start to life at stadiummk, tapping home the winner in Saturday's 1-0 win against Stevenage just hours after putting pen to paper.

Dons had conceded that they couldn't keep refusing increasingly better offers for Baldock, especially when clubs of West Ham's stature came calling.

Peterborough saw an offer in the region of £1.2million accepted over the summer so Baldock's value has rocketed after his start to the season, and the club now has financial security for two years.
